38. Subject to the provisions of Article 41 hereof, the new shares shall be issued upon such terms and conditions and with such rights, priorities, or privileges as the resolution effecting the increase of Capital shall prescribe.

39. Repealed

40. Repealed

Modification of Rights

42. If at any time the capital is divided into different classes of Shares, the rights attached to any class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the Shares of that class) may, subject to the provisions of Section 180 of the Ordinance, be modified, abrogated, or varied with the consent in writing of the Holders of three-fourths of the issued Shares of that class, or with the sanction of a Special Resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the Holders of the class. To every such separate general meeting the provisions of these regulations relating to general meetings shall mutatis mutandis apply, but so that at every such separate general meeting the quorum shall be Holder(s) at least holding or representing by proxy one-third of the issued Shares of the class, and that any Holder of the class present in person or by proxy may demand a poll.

Borrowing Powers

43. The Board may raise or borrow for the purposes of the Company's business such sum or sums of money as they think fit. The Directors may secure the repayment of or raise any such sum or sums as aforesaid by mortgage or charge upon the whole or any part of the property and assets of the Company, present and future, including its uncalled or unissued Capital, or by the issue, at such price as they may think fit, of Bonds, or Debentures, either charged upon the whole or any part of the property and assets of the Company or not so charged, or in such other way as the Board may think expedient.

44. Any Bonds, Debentures, Debenture Stock or other securities issued or to be issued by the Company shall be under the control of the Board who may issue them upon such terms and conditions and in such manner and for such considerations as they shall consider to be for the benefit of the Company.

45. The Company may, upon the issue of any Bonds, Debentures, Debenture Stock, or other securities, confer on the creditors of the Company holding the same, or on any trustees or other persons acting on their behalf, a voice in the management of the Company, whether by giving to them the right of attending and voting at general meetings, or by empowering them to appoint one or more persons to be the Directors of the Company, or otherwise as may be agreed.

46. If any Director or other person shall become personally liable for the payment of any sum primarily due from the Company, the Board may execute or cause to be executed any mortgage, charge, or security over or affecting the whole or any part of the assets of the Company by way of indemnity to secure the Director or person so becoming liable as aforesaid from any loss in respect of such liability.

47. A Register of the holders of the Debentures of the Company shall be kept at the Office, and shall be open to the inspection of the registered holders of such Debentures and of any Member of the Company, subject to such restrictions as the Company in general meeting may from time to time impose. The Directors may close such Register for such period or periods as they may think fit, not exceeding in the aggregate thirty days in each year.

47A. The Register shall be open for inspection by Members provided that the Company may be permitted to close such Register at such times and for such periods as the Board thinks fit, not exceeding in the whole thirty (30) days in each year.

General Meetings

48. Except as provided by the Ordinance, the Company shall in each financial year hold a general meeting as its annual general meeting ("Annual General Meeting") in accordance with the requirements of the Ordinance. All general meetings of the Company other than its Annual General Meeting are simply referred to as “General Meeting”. All general meetings (including an annual general meeting, any adjourned meeting or postponed meeting) may be held as a physical meeting in any part of the world and at one or more locations as provided in Article 61A, or as a hybrid meeting or as a virtual meeting, as may be determined by the Board in its absolute discretion.

49. (a) The Directors may, if they think fit, call a General Meeting.
- (b) If the Directors are required to call a General Meeting under Section 566 of the Ordinance, they must call it in accordance with Section 567 of the Ordinance.
- (c) If the Directors do not call a General Meeting in accordance with Section 567 of the Ordinance, the members who requested the meeting, or any of them representing more than one half of the total voting rights of all of them, may themselves call a General Meeting in accordance with Section 568 of the Ordinance.

50. In the case of a General Meeting called in pursuance of a requisition, unless such General Meeting shall have been called by the Board no business other than that stated in the requisition as the objects of the General Meeting shall be transacted.

51. In the case of an Annual General Meeting, 21 clear days’ notice at the least, and in the case of General Meeting other than an Annual General Meeting, 14 clear days’ notice at the least, shall be given to all the members and to the Auditors for the time being of the Company. The notice shall be exclusive of the day on which it is served or deemed to be served and of the day for which it is given and shall specify (a) save for a virtual meeting, the physical venue(s) of the meeting (and if the meeting is to be held in two or more physical venues using any technology that enables the Members who are not together at the same physical venue to listen, speak and vote at the meeting (in accordance with the requirements of the Ordinance), including the principal physical venue of the meeting (the “Principal Meeting Venue”) and the other Meeting Location(s)); (b) if the general meeting is to be a hybrid meeting or a virtual meeting, a statement to that effect and with details of the virtual meeting technology for virtual attendance and participation at the meeting (and such virtual meeting technology may vary from meeting to meeting as the Board, in its sole discretion, may see fit) or where such details will be made available by the Company prior to the meeting; (c) date and time of meeting; (d) the particulars of resolutions to be considered at the meeting; and (e) in the case of special business, the general nature of that business. Without prejudice to the other requirements (if any) of the Ordinance, every notice of an Annual General Meeting shall specify the meeting as such and every notice of a General Meeting convened for passing a Special Resolution shall state the intention to propose such Resolution as a Special Resolution.

52. Notwithstanding that a meeting of the Company is called by shorter notice than that specified in Article 51, it shall be deemed to have been duly called if it is so agreed:

- (a) in the case of a meeting called as an Annual General Meeting, by all the Members entitled to attend and vote thereat; and
- (b) in the case of any other meeting, by a majority in number of the Members having a right to attend and vote at the meeting, being a majority together holding not less than 95 per cent. of the total voting rights at the meeting of all the Members.

Proceedings at General Meetings

53. The business of any Annual General Meeting shall be to receive and consider the accounts and balance sheets, the reports of the Directors and Auditors, and any other documents required by law to be attached or annexed to the balance sheets, to elect Directors in place of those retiring, to elect Auditors and fix their remuneration, and to declare a Dividend. All other business transacted at an Annual General Meeting, and all business transacted at a General Meeting, shall be deemed special.

54. No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of Members is present at the time when the general meeting proceeds to business; and such quorum shall consist of not less than two Members personally present or by proxy.

55. If within half an hour from the time appointed for a general meeting a quorum be not present the general meeting, if convened upon the requisition of Members, shall be dissolved. In any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place (where applicable); and if at such adjourned general meeting a quorum be not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the general meeting it shall be adjourned sine die.

56. The Chairman of the Board shall preside as Chairman at every general meeting of the Company. If there be no such Chairman, or if at any general meeting he be not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the general meeting, or is unwilling to act as Chairman, the Members present shall choose one of the Directors present to be Chairman; or if no Director be present and willing to take the chair the Members present shall choose one of their Members to be Chairman.

57. The Chairman may, with the consent of any general meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the general meeting), adjourn the general meeting from time to time and from place to place (where applicable) and/or from one form to another (a physical meeting, a hybrid meeting or a virtual meeting); but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned general meeting other than the business left unfinished at the general meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a general meeting is adjourned for ten days or more, notice of the adjourned general meeting shall be given as in the case of an original general meeting. Save as aforesaid, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjourned general meeting or of the business to be transacted thereat.

58. At any general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the general meeting shall be decided on a poll except, subject to the Ordinance and the Listing Rules, where the Chairman, in good faith, decides to allow a resolution which relates purely to a procedural or administrative matter to be voted on by a show of hands. Procedural and administrative matters are those that (a) are not on the agenda of the meeting or in any supplementary circular to Members; and (b) relate to the chairman's duties to maintain the orderly conduct of the meeting and/or allow the business of the meeting to be properly and effectively dealt with, whilst allowing all Members a reasonable opportunity to express their views.

59. A poll shall be taken in such manner, electronic or otherwise, as the Chairman shall direct and he may appoint scrutineers (who need not be Members). The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting.

60. In the case of an equality of votes at any general meeting, whether upon a show of hands or on a poll, the Chairman shall be entitled to a second or casting vote. In case of any dispute as to the admission or rejection of any vote the Chairman shall determine the same, and such determination shall be final and conclusive.

61. A poll demanded upon the election of a Chairman or upon a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. Any business other than that upon which a poll has been demanded may be proceeded with pending the taking of the poll.

61A. (a) The Board may, at its absolute discretion, arrange for persons entitled to attend a general meeting to do so by simultaneous attendance and participation by means of virtual meeting technology at such location or locations (the "Meeting Location(s)") determined by the Board. Any Member or any proxy attending and participating in such way or any Member or proxy participating in a virtual meeting or a hybrid meeting by means of virtual meeting technology is deemed to be present at and shall be counted in the quorum of the meeting.

- (b) All general meetings are subject to the following:
- (i) where a Member is attending a Meeting Location and/or in the case of a hybrid meeting, the meeting shall be treated as having commenced if it has commenced at the Principal Meeting Venue;
 - (ii) Members (in the case of a Member being a corporation, by its duly authorised representative) or proxies physically present at a Meeting Location and/or participating in a virtual meeting or a hybrid meeting by means of virtual meeting technology shall be counted in the quorum for and entitled to vote at the meeting in question, and that meeting shall be duly constituted and its proceedings are valid provided that the chairman of the meeting is satisfied that adequate virtual meeting technology is available throughout the meeting to ensure that Members or proxies at all Meeting Locations and/or Members or proxies participating in a virtual meeting or a hybrid meeting by means of virtual meeting technology are able to participate in the business for which the meeting has been convened;
 - (iii) where Members or proxies attend a meeting by being present at one of the Meeting Locations and/or where Members or proxies participate in a virtual meeting or a hybrid meeting by means of virtual meeting technology, a failure (for any reason) of the virtual meeting technology or communication equipment, or any other failure in the arrangements for enabling those in a Meeting Location other than the Principal Meeting Venue to participate in the business for which the meeting has been convened, or in the case of a virtual meeting or a hybrid meeting, the inability of one or more Members or proxies to access, or continue to access, the virtual meeting technology despite adequate virtual meeting technology having been made available by the Company, shall not affect the validity of the meeting or the resolutions passed, or any business conducted there or any action taken pursuant to such business provided that there is a quorum present throughout the meeting; and
 - (iv) if any of the Meeting Locations is outside the jurisdiction of where the Principal Meeting Venue is situated and/or in the case of a hybrid meeting or a virtual meeting, the provisions of these Articles concerning the service and giving of notice for the meeting, and the time for lodging proxies, shall apply by reference to the place of incorporation of the Company.

61B. The Board and, at any general meeting, the chairman of the meeting may from time to time make arrangements for managing attendance and/or participation and/or voting at the Principal Meeting Venue and/or any Meeting Location(s) and/or participation and/or voting in a virtual meeting or a hybrid meeting by means of virtual meeting technology (whether involving the issue of tickets or some other means of identification, passcode, seat reservation, electronic voting or otherwise) as it/he shall in its/his absolute discretion consider appropriate, and may from time to time change any such arrangements, provided that, if applicable, a Member who, pursuant to such arrangements, is not entitled to attend in person (in the case of a Member being a corporation, by its duly authorised representative) or by proxy, at any Meeting Location shall be entitled so to attend at one of the other Meeting Locations; and the entitlement of any Member so to attend the meeting or adjourned meeting or postponed meeting at any of such Meeting Locations shall be subject to any such arrangement as may be for the time being in force and by the notice of meeting or adjourned meeting or postponed meeting stated to apply to the meeting.

61C. If it appears to the chairman of the general meeting that:

- (a) the virtual meeting technology at the Principal Meeting Venue or at such other Meeting

Location(s) at which the meeting may be attended has become inadequate for the purposes referred to in Article 61A(a) or is otherwise not sufficient to allow the meeting to be conducted substantially in accordance with the provisions set out in the notice of the meeting; or

- (b) in the case of a virtual meeting or a hybrid meeting, virtual meeting technology being made available by the Company has become inadequate; or
- (c) it is not possible to ascertain the view of those present or to give all persons entitled to do so a reasonable opportunity to communicate and/or vote at the meeting; or
- (d) there is violence or the threat of violence, unruly behaviour or other disruption occurring at the meeting or it is not possible to secure the proper and orderly conduct of the meeting;

then, without prejudice to any other power which the chairman of the meeting may have under these Articles or the Ordinance, the chairman may, at his absolute discretion, without the consent of the Members or proxies present at the meeting, and before or after the meeting has started and irrespective of whether a quorum is present, interrupt or adjourn the meeting (including adjournment for indefinite period). All business conducted at the meeting up to the time of such adjournment shall be valid.

61D. The Board and, at any general meeting, the chairman of the meeting may make any arrangement and impose any requirement or restriction as the Board or the chairman of the meeting, as the case may be, considers appropriate to ensure the security and orderly conduct of a meeting (including, without limitation, requirements for evidence of identity to be produced by those attending the meeting, the searching of their personal property and the restriction of items that may be taken into the meeting venue, determining the number and frequency of and the time allowed for questions that may be raised at a meeting). Members shall also comply with all requirements or restrictions imposed by the owner of the premises at which the meeting is held. Any decision made under this Article shall be final and conclusive and a person who refuses to comply with any such arrangements, requirements or restrictions may be refused entry to the meeting or ejected (physically or electronically) from the meeting.

61E. All persons seeking to attend and participate in a virtual meeting or a hybrid meeting shall be responsible for maintaining adequate virtual meeting technology to enable them to do so. Subject to Article 61C, any inability of a person or persons to attend or participate in a general meeting by way of virtual meeting technology shall not invalidate the proceedings of and/or resolutions passed at that meeting.

61F. In the case of a resolution to be proposed as an ordinary resolution, no amendment may be made (other than a mere clerical amendment to correct a patent error), unless either (a) at least 48 hours prior to the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting or postponed meeting at which such ordinary resolution is to be proposed, notice in writing of the terms of the amendment and intention to move the same has been lodged at the Office (or if an electronic address for receiving such notice has been provided, such notice has been received by the Company at such electronic address); or (b) in any case, the chairman of the meeting in his absolute discretion otherwise decides that the amendment or amended resolution may be considered or voted upon, provided that the proposed amendment does not, in the opinion of the chairman of the meeting, materially alter the scope of the resolution.

Votes of Members

62. Subject to any special terms as to voting upon which any Shares may have been issued or may for the time being be held, upon a show of hands every Member present in person shall have one vote, and upon a poll every Member present in person or by proxy shall have one vote for every share held by him. On a poll, a Member entitled to more than one vote is under no obligation to cast all his votes in the same way (or, in the case of a Member being a corporation, by its duly authorised representative).

62A. All Members shall have the right to (a) speak at a general meeting; and (b) vote at a general meeting except where a Member is required, by the Ordinance or the Listing Rules, to abstain from voting to approve the matter under consideration. Where the Company has knowledge that any Member is, under the rules of the relevant stock exchange, required to abstain from voting on any particular resolution or restricted to voting only for or only against any particular resolution, any votes cast by or on behalf of such Member in contravention of such requirement or restriction shall not be counted.

63. If any Member be a person of unsound mind he may vote by his committee, receiver, curator bonis, or other legal curator.

64. No Member shall be entitled to be present or to vote at any general meeting unless all Calls or other sums presently payable by him in respect of the Shares held by him in the Company have been paid.

65. On a poll votes may be given either personally or by proxy.

66. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointor, or of his attorney duly authorised in writing, or if such appointor be a corporation either under its common seal or under the hands of an officer or attorney so duly authorised.

67. The instrument appointing a proxy and the power of attorney or other authority (if any) under which it is signed, or a notarially certified copy of such power or authority, shall be deposited at the Registered Office of the Company not less than forty-eight hours before the time fixed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in such instrument is authorised to vote, and in default the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid. Delivery of an instrument appointing a proxy shall not preclude a Member from attending and/or participating and voting in person or by means of virtual meeting technology at the meeting or poll concerned. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be deemed to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a poll. A proxy need not be a Member of the Company.

68. Instruments of proxy shall be in any common form or in such form as the Board may approve (provided that this shall not preclude the use of the two-way form) and the Board may, if it thinks fit, send out with the notice of any meeting forms of instrument of proxy for use at the meeting. The instrument of proxy shall, unless the contrary is stated therein, be valid as well for any adjournment of the meeting as for the meeting to which it relates.

68A. Any Member entitled to attend and vote at a meeting of the Company shall be entitled to appoint another person as his proxy to attend and vote instead of him. A Member who is the holder of two or more shares may appoint more than one proxy to represent him and vote on his behalf at a general meeting of the Company or at a class meeting. A proxy need not be a Member. On a poll or a show of hands votes may be given either personally (or, in the case of a Member being a corporation, by its duly authorised representative) or by proxy. A proxy shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of a Member who is an individual and for whom he acts as proxy as such Member could exercise. In addition, a proxy shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of a Member which is a corporation and for which he acts as proxy as such Member could exercise if it were an individual Member.

68B. Any corporation which is a Member of the Company may, by resolution of its directors or other governing body or by power of attorney, authorise any person as it thinks fit to act as its representative at any meeting of the Company or of any class of shareholders of the Company, and the person so authorised shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the corporation which he represents as that corporation could exercise if it were an individual Member of the Company. References in these Articles to a Member present in person at a meeting shall, unless the context otherwise requires, include a corporation which is a Member represented at the meeting by such duly authorised representative.

68D. Unless the Board agrees otherwise, an appointment of a corporate representative shall not be valid as against the Company unless:

- (i) in the case of such an appointment by a Member which is a clearing house (or its nominee(s)), a written notification of the appointment issued by any director, the secretary or any authorised officer(s) of such Member shall have been delivered at such place or one of such places (if any) as is specified in the notice of meeting or in the form or notice issued by the Company, or, if no place is specified, at the principal place of business of the Company in Hong Kong from time to time before the time of holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person so authorised proposes to vote; and
- (ii) in the case of such an appointment by any other corporate Member, a copy of the resolution of the governing body of the Member authorising the appointment of the corporate representative or a form of notice of appointment of corporate representative issued by the Company for such purpose or a copy of the relevant power of attorney, together with an up-to-date copy of the Member's constitutive documents and a list of directors or members of the governing body of the Member as at the date of such resolution (or, as the case may be, power of attorney, in each case certified by a director, secretary or a Member of the governing body of that Member and notarised (or, in the case of a form of notice of appointment issued by the company as aforesaid, completed and signed in accordance with the instructions thereon or in the case of a power of attorney a notarised copy of the relevant authority under which it was signed), shall have been deposited at such place or one of such places (if any) as is specified in the notice of meeting or in the form of notice issued by the Company as aforesaid (or, if no place is specified, at the office where the Register is for the time being maintained) not less than forty-eight hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting or poll (as the case may be) at which the corporate representative proposes to vote.

Directors

69. Unless and until the Company in general meeting shall otherwise determine the number of Directors shall be not less than four nor more than fifteen. The First Directors shall be appointed in writing by the subscribers of the Memorandum of Association.

70. A Director need not hold any Share in the Company.

71. The remuneration of the Directors shall be such sum or sums as the Company may in general meeting from time to time determine. The Directors shall also be entitled to be paid their reasonable travelling and other expenses incurred in consequence of their attendance at Board Meetings and otherwise in the execution of their duties as Directors. Any resolution of the Board reducing or postponing the time for payment of the Directors' remuneration shall bind all the Directors.

72. The Board may award special remuneration out of the funds of the Company to any Director going or residing abroad in the interests of the Company, or undertaking any work additional to that usually required of Directors of a company similar to this.

Powers of Directors

73. (a) The business of the Company shall be managed by the Board, who shall pay all expenses incurred in the formation and registration of the Company, and may exercise all such powers of the Company, as are not by the Ordinance or by these Article required to be exercised by the Company in general meeting, subject, nevertheless, to any regulations of these Articles, to the provisions of the Ordinance, and to such regulations not being inconsistent with the aforesaid regulations or provisions, as may be prescribed by the Company in general meeting; but no regulation made by the Company in general meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the Directors which would have been valid if such regulation had not been made.

(b) Without prejudice to the general powers conferred by these Articles it is hereby expressly declared that the Board shall have the following powers:

- (i) To give to any person the right or option of requiring at a future date that an allotment shall be made to him of any share at par or at such premium as may be agreed.
- (ii) To give to any Directors, officers or servants of the Company an interest in any particular business or transaction or participation in the profits thereof or in the general profits of the Company either in addition to or in substitution for a salary and such commission or salary shall be treated as part of the working expenses of the Company.

Disqualification of Directors

74. The Office of a Director shall be vacated:

- (a) If he becomes bankrupt or insolvent or compound with his creditors;
- (b) If he becomes of unsound mind;
- (c) If he be convicted of an indictable offence;
- (d) If he is prohibited by law from being a Director or is removed from office pursuant to these Articles;
- (e) If he becomes prohibited from being a Director by reason of any order made by Court;
- (f) If he gives the Company one month's notice in writing that he resigns his office. But any act done in good faith by a Director whose office is vacated as aforesaid shall be valid unless, prior to the doing of such act, written notice shall have been served upon the Company or an entry shall have been made in the Directors' Minute Book stating that such Director has ceased to be a Director of the Company.

75. (A) A Director may hold any other office or place of profit with the Company (except that of Auditors) in conjunction with his office of Director for such period and upon such terms as the Directors may determine, and may be paid such extra remuneration therefor (whether by way of salary, commission, participation in profits or otherwise) as the Directors may determine, and such extra remuneration shall be in addition to any remuneration provided for, by or pursuant to any other Article.

(B) A Director may act by himself or his firm in a professional capacity for the Company (otherwise than as Auditors) and he or his firm shall be entitled to remuneration for professional services as if he were not a Director.

(C) A Director may, subject to the provisions of the Ordinance and the interest of the Director being duly declared in accordance with Section 536 of the Ordinance, be or become a director or other officer of, or otherwise interested in, any company promoted by the Company or any other company in which the Company may be interested, and shall not be liable to account to the Company or the shareholders for any remuneration, profit or other benefit received by him as a director or officer of or from his interest in such other company. The Directors may also cause the voting power conferred by the shares in any other company held or owned by the Company to be exercised in such manner in all respects as they think fit, including the exercise thereof in favour of any resolution appointing the Directors or any of them to be directors or officers of such other company, or voting or providing for the payment of remuneration to the directors or officers of such other company.

(D) A Director shall not vote or be counted in the quorum on any resolution of the Directors concerning his own appointment as the holder of any office or place of profit with the Company or any other company in which the Company is interested (including the arrangement or variation of the terms thereof, or the termination thereof).

(E) Where arrangements are under consideration concerning the appointment (including the arrangement, remuneration or variation of the terms thereof, or the termination thereof) of two or more Directors to offices or places of profit with the Company or any other company in which the Company is interested, a separate resolution may be put in relation to each Director and in such case each of the Directors concerned shall be entitled to vote (and be counted in the quorum) in respect of each resolution except that concerning his own appointment (or the arrangement or variation of the terms thereof or the termination thereof) and (in the case of an office or place of profit with any such other company as aforesaid).

(F) Subject to Article 75(G) and declaration of the nature and extent of the Director's interest under Section 536 of the Ordinance, no Director or proposed or intended Director shall be disqualified by his office from contracting with the Company, either with regard to his tenure of any office or place of profit or as vendor, purchaser or in any other manner whatever, nor shall any contract with regard thereto or any other contract or arrangement in which any Director is in any way interested be liable to be avoided, nor shall any Director so contracting or being so interested be liable to account to the Company or the shareholders for any remuneration, profit or other benefits realised by any such contract or arrangement, by reason only of such Director holding that office or the fiduciary relationship thereby established.

(G) If a Director or any of his close associates (or if required by the Listing Rules, his associates) or an entity connected with the Director is, in any way, whether directly or indirectly, interested in a transaction, arrangement or contract or a proposed transaction, arrangement or contract with the Company, the Director shall, if such transaction, arrangement or contract or proposed transaction, arrangement or contract is significant in relation to the Company's business and the Director's interest or the interest of his close associates (or if required by the Listing Rules, his associates) or the entity connected with the Director (as applicable) is material, declare the nature and extent of his interest or the interest of his close associates (or if required by the Listing Rules, his associates) or the entity connected with him (as applicable) to other Directors in the following manner, subject to the Ordinance and these Articles and any requirements prescribed by the Company for the declarations of interests of Directors in force from time to time:

- (i) A declaration of interest by a Director in a transaction, arrangement or contract that has been entered into must be made as soon as reasonably practicable and a declaration of interest by a Director in a proposed transaction, arrangement or contract must be made before the Company enters into the transaction, arrangement or contract.
- (ii) A declaration of interest by a Director must be made at a Directors' meeting, made by a notice in writing and sent by the Director to the other Directors or made by a general notice by the Director.

- (iii) A notice for the purposes of this Article must be sent in hard copy form or, if the recipient has agreed to receive it in electronic form, in the electronic form so agreed and by hand or by post or, if the recipient has agreed to receive it by electronic means, by the electronic means so agreed.
- (iv) If a declaration to Directors is made by notice in writing, the making of the declaration is to be regarded as forming part of the proceedings at the next Directors' meeting after the notice is given and Section 481 of the Ordinance applies as if the declaration had been made at that meeting.
- (v) A general notice by a Director is a notice to the effect that the Director has an interest (as member, officer, employee or otherwise) in a body corporate or firm specified in the notice, and is to be regarded as interested in any transaction, arrangement or contract that may, after the effective date of the notice, be entered into by the Company with the specified body corporate or firm or the Director is connected with a person specified in the notice (other than a body corporate or firm), and is to be regarded as interested in any transaction, arrangement or contract that may, after the effective date of the notice, be entered into by the Company with the specified person.
- (vi) A general notice must state the nature and extent of the Director's interest in the specified body corporate or firm or the nature of the Director's connection with the specified person. A general notice must be given at a Directors' meeting or in writing and sent to the Company. A general notice given at a Directors' meeting takes effect on the date of the Directors' meeting.
