BUSINESS AND FINANCIAL HIGHLIGHTS

In 2023, the operating environment extended the difficult time of prior years especially the unforeseen significant overstocking of sportswear industry. The global economy was clouded by continued geopolitical tensions, elevated interest rate and inflation rate as well as currency instability.

Revenue from continuing operations amounted to HK$3,073.7 million (2022: HK$4,084.2 million), representing a decrease of 24.7%.

Manufacturing Business was adversely affected by the significant overstocking of sportswear industry. Sportswear Manufacturing Business faced an atypical situation characterised by destocking due to overbuilt inventory and weaker-than-expected demand. High-end Functional Outerwear Manufacturing Business was affected by the decreased demand from the European market. As a result, revenue from Manufacturing Business amounted to HK$2,466.0 million (2022: HK$3,558.0 million), representing a decrease of 30.7%.

High-end Fashion Retailing Business experienced another tough year and faced mounting pressures in 2023 while the shop footfall snapped back temporarily in the early of 2023 but the customer demand was erratic after the pent-up demand faded. Revenue from continuing operations of High-end Fashion Retailing Business amounted to HK$607.7 million (2022: HK$526.2 million), representing an increase of 15.5%.

Gross profit margin from continuing operations decreased to 16.4% (2022: 20.1%). Both gross profit margin of Manufacturing Business and High-end Fashion Retailing Business declined. We saw the decline in production capacity utilisation rate and operating efficiency of Manufacturing Business as a consequence of substantial decrease in orders received from customers. In addition, deep discounts were offered in order to stimulate customer spending under High-end Fashion Retailing Business as the recovery of customer demand was not as strong as expected despite the cessation of all COVID-19 related control measures in the Mainland China market.

The Group was an authorised distributor of the fashion brand “Champion” in Mainland China but the Group suffered losses from the operations of “Champion” in recent years due to unfavourable market and competition conditions. As such, the Group disposed of the operations of “Champion” (the “Disposal”) to cut losses and the Disposal has been completed in December 2023. Together with the loss arising from the Disposal, loss after taxation of HK$120.1 million was recorded for discontinued operations for the year ended 31 December 2023 (2022: HK$57.6 million).

Overall, the Group recorded loss after taxation of HK$382.6 million for the year ended 31 December 2023 (2022: profit of HK$23.6 million). Excluding discontinued operations, loss after taxation from continuing operations would be HK$262.5 million for the year ended 31 December 2023 (2022: profit of HK$81.2 million).

Against the backdrop of the challenging environment, the financial and liquidity position remains healthy. As at 31 December 2023, cash and bank balances amounted to HK$209.5 million (2022: HK$370.5 million) and net gearing ratio was 18.4% (2022: 22.8%).

OUTLOOK

Looking ahead, the global economy will remain challenging as economic headwinds, regional conflicts and persistent inflation will undermine consumer confidence though there is a consensus that interest rate will likely be reduced in 2024. These remind us to stay cautious of the volatile external environment.

Manufacturing Business experienced a year of turbulence in 2023 but it is expected that the business will have a meaningful and solid recovery in 2024. The momentum of customer orders has been re-gained as our customers' overstocking have been significantly improved. It is expected that revenue for the first half of 2024 will increase notably as compared to the same period in 2023.

High-end Fashion Retailing Business will continue to focus on the Mainland China market. It is anticipated that the resurgence path will continue to be bumpy as the customer demand is still frail and uncertainties surrounding China's economy remain high in 2024.

Having said that, the Group is confident that we can continue to adapt, optimise and manage our resources prudently to mitigate risks, drive sustainable development and navigate in complex landscape, despite under the backdrop of the global economic uncertainties. We will remain resilient and agile to cope with the dynamic and complex situations.

DIVIDENDS

The Board considers to conserve our financial resources and does not recommend the payment of dividend in order to prepare for the evolving market and business landscape. We will continue to closely monitor the market situation and assess our dividend payout from time to time.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Finally, I would like to offer my sincere thanks to our Directors and the whole team for their dedication and tireless efforts to overcome various difficulties and challenges. My gratitude also goes to our clients, shareholders and business partners for their long-term trust and support.

Management Discussion and Analysis

The Group is an integrated manufacturer and retailer for internationally renowned sports, fashion and outdoor brands. The financial performance of the Group for the year ended 31 December 2023 is summarised below:

OVERALL REVIEW

Revenue of the Group from continuing operations amounted to HK$3,073.7 million (2022: HK$4,084.2 million), representing a decrease of 24.7%. The decrease was mainly attributable to the decreased orders received from customers of Manufacturing Business since the last quarter of 2022, amid inventory pileup particularly in the sportswear market as a result of lower consumer demand in all the markets.

Gross profit margin of the Group from continuing operations decreased to 16.4% (2022: 20.1%). The decrease in gross profit margin of 3.7 percentage points was attributable to the decline in gross profit margin of both Manufacturing Business and High-end Fashion Retailing Business. Production capacity utilisation rate and operating efficiency of Manufacturing Business declined as a consequence of significant decrease in orders received from customers. In addition, deep discounts were offered to stimulate customer spending under High-end Fashion Retailing Business as the recovery of customer demand was not as strong as expected despite the cessation of all COVID-19 related control measures in the Mainland China market. As a result, gross profit of the Group from continuing operations decreased by HK$318.4 million to HK$504.1 million (2022: HK$822.5 million), 38.7% lower than that of 2022.

Net other income mainly comprised gain before taxation arising from the disposal of a subsidiary in Mainland China of HK$21.4 million. In 2022, net other income mainly comprised gains before taxation arising from the disposals of land lease right in Vietnam and a property-holding subsidiary in Hong Kong of HK$54.8 million and HK$14.6 million respectively.

Consequently, operating result recorded a loss of HK$231.4 million (2022: profit of HK$108.0 million).

Net finance costs increased by HK$6.9 million to HK$44.9 million (2022: HK$38.0 million), which was mainly attributable to the increase in interest on bank borrowings by HK$8.8 million as a result of increase in interest rates.

In order to cut losses arising from the Group's retail operations of the fashion brand "Champion" and to clear aged inventories, the Group entered into a disposal agreement with a third party to sell, assign and novate the inventories and the licensed stores assets for "Champion" to the third party (the "Disposal"). The Group ceased to operate licensed stores of "Champion" after the completion of the Disposal in December 2023. Together with the loss arising from the Disposal, loss after taxation of HK$120.1 million was recorded for the year ended 31 December 2023 (2022: HK$57.6 million).

Overall, the Group recorded loss after taxation of HK$382.6 million for the year ended 31 December 2023 (2022: profit of HK$23.6 million). Excluding discontinued operations, loss after taxation from continuing operations would be HK$262.5 million for the year ended 31 December 2023 (2022: profit of HK$81.2 million).

The Board considers to conserve financial resources and does not recommend the payment of dividend for the year ended 31 December 2023 (2022: Nil) in view of the challenges ahead. We will continue to closely monitor the market situation and review our dividend payout from time to time.

BUSINESS REVIEW

The operating environment remained complex and challenging and the Group has experienced a range of economic and industrial specific challenges in 2023.

The financial performance of the business segments is summarised below:

Manufacturing Business

Our Manufacturing Business comprises “Sportswear Manufacturing Business” and “High-end Functional Outerwear Manufacturing Business”.

Sportswear Manufacturing Business

The Group’s Sportswear Manufacturing Business operates mainly through its OEM arrangements for a number of internationally renowned brands. Most of the Group’s products are exported and sold to Europe, the United States and Mainland China. The Group has a long history and a distinctive position in sportswear garment manufacturing and has established long-term business relationships with its key customers.

Revenue from Sportswear Manufacturing Business decreased by HK$1,016.5 million to HK$1,880.2 million (2022: HK$2,896.7 million), representing a decrease of 35.1%. The decrease was mainly due to the decreased orders received from customers since the last quarter of 2022, amid inventory pileup resulting from low consumer demand in all the markets. As a consequence, production capacity utilisation rate and operating efficiency declined in spite of the Group’s considerable efforts to reduce costs. In light of the potential adverse impact arising from the low utilisation of production facilities, impairment loss of HK$23.4 million was provided for certain production facilities. In addition, year 2023 was absent of the disposal gain of HK$54.8 million arising from the disposal of a land lease right in Vietnam. As a result, operating loss of HK$187.7 million was recorded for the year ended 31 December 2023 (2022: profit of HK$123.7 million).

High-end Functional Outerwear Manufacturing Business

Revenue from High-end Functional Outerwear Manufacturing Business decreased by HK$75.6 million to HK$585.7 million (2022: HK$661.3 million), representing a decrease of 11.4%. It was mainly attributable to the decreased orders received from the European market which was partially offset by the increased orders from the United States and Mainland China markets with lower profit margins. As a result, operating profit reduced to HK$3.5 million for the year ended 31 December 2023 (2022: HK$40.8 million).

High-end Fashion Retailing Business

Continuing Operations

The Group's High-end Fashion Retailing Business had fashion retail networks through "D-mop", "J-01" and "Spoonyard" stores to sell self-owned brands, as well as imported brands, in Hong Kong and Mainland China. In addition, it had distribution rights for brands including "Y-3" in Mainland China, Hong Kong, Macau, Taiwan and other Asia-Pacific regions, and "Barbour" in Mainland China. It also operated licensed stores for brands "DAKS" in Mainland China and "New Era" in Hong Kong.

Revenue from continuing operations of High-end Fashion Retailing Business increased by HK$81.5 million to HK$607.7 million (2022: HK$526.2 million), representing an increase of 15.5%. Following the long-awaited cessation of all COVID-19 related control measures, the shop footfall snapped back temporarily in the early of 2023 but the customer demand was still frail after the pent-up demand faded. As such, deep discounts were offered to simulate customer spending and to clear aged inventories, while gross profit contribution was hindered and performance of certain retail stores were adversely impacted by heavy rental costs. In light of the adverse impact on the retail store performance, impairment loss of HK$17.6 million (2022: Nil) was provided for certain retail store assets. As a result, operating loss of HK$47.1 million was recorded for the year ended 31 December 2023 (2022: HK$56.5 million).

Discontinued Operations – "Champion"

The Group was an authorised distributor of the fashion brand "Champion" in Mainland China. As the distributorship of "Champion" in Mainland China was non-exclusive and the Group was not the operator of the online stores of such brand in Mainland China, it was particularly unfavourable to the Group during the head-to-head competition with another distributor in the Mainland China market. In addition, the recovery of customer demand was not as strong as expected despite the cessation of all COVID-19 related control measures in the Mainland China market in the first half of 2023. As a result, the Group suffered losses from the operations of "Champion" in recent years.

As such, the Group entered into a disposal agreement with a third party which is also an authorised distributor of "Champion" in Mainland China to sell, assign and novate the inventories and the licensed stores assets for the fashion brand "Champion" to the third party. The Group ceased to operate licensed stores of "Champion" after the completion of the Disposal in December 2023. The Disposal will cut losses of the Group's operations of "Champion" and to clear aged inventories. Furthermore, the net proceeds from the Disposal will provide the Group with cash inflow which will improve and strengthen the cash and financial position of the Group. As a result, loss after taxation of HK$120.1 million was recorded for the year ended 31 December 2023 (2022: HK$57.6 million).

As at 31 December 2023, the total number of stores decreased to 123 (2022: 222), of which 94 (2022: 193) stores were in Mainland China, 18 (2022: 19) stores were in Hong Kong and Macau, and 11 (2022: 10) stores in Taiwan and other Asia-Pacific regions. The substantial decrease in the number of stores as at 31 December 2023 was mainly due to the completion of the Disposal.

PROSPECTS

Moving ahead, we will remain cautious as it is anticipated that uncertainties will continue in the markets in which we operate. Geopolitical tensions will persist, elevated interest rate and inflation rate are expected to maintain in the background.

Notwithstanding the headwinds, it is believed that our agility and diversified businesses will fuel us to face the challenges ahead and drive sustainable development on the bumpy resurgence path.

Manufacturing Business

Sportswear Manufacturing Business

Sportswear Manufacturing Business has been severely impacted by the order reduction from customers since the last quarter of 2022. Our customers have significantly improved the inventory glut issue after almost a year despite the challenging economic environment. It is noted that the momentum of the customer orders has been re-gained as driven by the increasing consumer demand from the Western markets, in particular arising from large-scale major sports events. As at the date of this annual report, based on the information available to the Company, the actual orders received plus latest order indication received from customers, revenue for the first half of 2024 is expected to increase by more than 20% as compared to the same period in 2023.

High-end Functional Outerwear Manufacturing Business

Subsequent to the decent progress made in the last few years, it is anticipated that the strategic partnership with a comprehensive sportswear conglomerate in the Mainland China market will be further enhanced and we will continue to enlarge the scope of cooperation with this conglomerate particularly with their internationally renowned brands. In addition, as at the date of this annual report, based on the information available to the Company, it is expected that orders from an outdoor recreation services corporation in the United States market may further increase in response to their increasing demands from consumers.

High-end Fashion Retailing Business

High-end Fashion Retailing Business will continue to focus on the Mainland China market after the completion of the Disposal. After capturing the initial upsurge in the first quarter of 2023, the Mainland China market has been re-calibrated and the customer demand was still frail. In other markets, Hong Kong and Macau are gradually recovering after the border re-opening with Mainland China, but these cities are facing fierce competition from neighbouring cities at the same time. It is anticipated that the path of resurgence will continue to be bumpy and surrounded by uncertainties.

Management Discussion and Analysis

FINANCIAL POSITION AND LIQUIDITY

In view of the challenges and uncertainties ahead, the Group will continue to proactively monitor the situation and impose strict cost control measures and focus on its cash flow management to ensure that it remains a healthy liquidity position.

Against the backdrop of the challenging environment, the Group's financial and liquidity position remains healthy. As at 31 December 2023, the Group had cash and bank balances of HK$209.5 million (2022: HK$370.5 million). Subsequent to the year end at 29 February 2024, cash and bank balances increased to HK$298.0 million as proceeds from the Disposal had been received. As at 31 December 2023, the Group had net borrowings (bank borrowings and loans from non-controlling interests of subsidiaries less cash and bank balances) of HK$265.2 million (2022: HK$423.7 million), together with available undrawn banking facilities of HK$666.2 million (2022: HK$432.2 million). The net change was mainly attributable to the cash generated from operating activities, net with repayment of bank borrowings. The net gearing ratio (being net borrowings divided by total equity) as at 31 December 2023 was 18.4% (2022: 22.8%).

The Group expects that there will be steady cash inflow from operations coupled with sufficient cash and bank balances and based on its readily available banking facilities, the Group has adequate liquidity and financial resources to cover its operating costs and meet its financial obligations as and when they fall due in the coming twelve months from the date of this annual report.

FOREIGN CURRENCY EXPOSURE

Hong Kong Dollar ("HKD") serves as the Company's functional currency and the Group's presentation currency. The Group considers its foreign currency exchange exposure arising from United States Dollar ("USD") transactions and USD cash balances to be minimal during the year given that HKD was pegged against USD.

The Group's revenue and purchases were primarily denominated in USD, Renminbi ("RMB") and HKD. During the year, approximately 66.0%, 30.0% and 1.8% of revenue were denominated in USD, RMB and HKD respectively, whereas approximately 80.3%, 16.0% and 2.4% of purchases were denominated in USD, RMB and HKD respectively.

As at 31 December 2023, approximately 41.3%, 39.9% and 11.7% of cash and bank balances were denominated in RMB, USD and HKD respectively, and approximately 49.6%, 45.7% and 4.6% of bank borrowings were denominated in USD, HKD and RMB respectively.

To minimise the impact of foreign currency rate volatility, we monitor foreign currency risk closely on an ongoing basis to ensure that the net exposure is at an acceptable level. If necessary, after consideration of the Group's future operation and investment needs in different currencies, we may use proper financial instruments to reduce the currency risk exposure.

EMPLOYEE AND REMUNERATION POLICIES

As at 31 December 2023, the Group had approximately 16,000 employees (2022: approximately 19,000 employees). The Group remunerates employees based on their performance, working experience and prevailing market conditions. Other employee benefits include retirement benefits, insurance, medical coverage and share option schemes.

CHARGES ON THE GROUP'S ASSETS

As at 31 December 2023, bank deposit of HK$1.2 million (2022: HK$1.2 million) was pledged as security deposit at Customs Department for a subsidiary of the Group; and land and properties with an aggregate carrying amount of HK$71.3 million (2022: HK$74.5 million) were pledged to banks for certain banking facilities of the Group.

CONTINGENT LIABILITIES

The Group had no significant contingent liabilities, litigation or arbitration of material importance as at 31 December 2023.

MATERIAL ACQUISITIONS AND DISPOSALS OF SUBSIDIARIES, ASSOCIATES AND JOINT VENTURES

In December 2023, the Group completed the disposal of a subsidiary of the Group. Please refer to Note 19(a) to the consolidated financial statements.

Save as disclosed above, the Group had no material acquisitions and disposals of subsidiaries, associates and joint ventures during the year ended 31 December 2023.

Risk Management

The Group is committed to the identification, monitoring and management of risks associated with its business activities, as well as those relating to the performance and reporting of environmental, social and governance of the Group. As an ongoing basis, risk management philosophy and practices are adopted in the Group's routine business operations and management process. Business operations from various aspects including associated risks are assessed by the senior management during regular management meetings.

In 2020, the Board engaged an independent international professional firm as our internal audit advisor (the "Internal Audit Advisor") to conduct a risk assessment for the Group. In 2023, the Internal Audit Advisor has updated the internal audit plan based on the Group's ongoing assessment of risks. Based on the updated internal audit plan, the Internal Audit Advisor performed an internal control assessment with details described in the sub-section headed "Internal Audit" below.

The major processes used to identify, assess and manage significant risks by the Group are summarised as follows:

The Group has established internal control to help the business operations to achieve the Group's business objectives, to safeguard the Group's assets, to ensure business operations complying with applicable laws and regulations, and to ensure the maintenance of proper accounting records and the reliability of financial information reported by the business operations.

Internal Audit

In view of the requirements in the Listing Rules in relation to the code provision on internal audit function, the Board, through the Audit Committee, engaged the Internal Audit Advisor to assist the Board in evaluating the various components of the risk management and internal control systems of the Group under the framework of control environment, risk assessment, control activities, information and communication, and monitoring in consistence with the "Committee of Sponsoring Organisations of the Treadway Commission" framework ("COSO framework"). The Board considers that the appointment of Internal Audit Advisor sufficiently serves the purpose of the internal audit function and manages the risk of the Group. The Internal Audit Advisor communicates with the management and reports directly to the Audit Committee. Based on the internal audit plan, the Internal Audit Advisor conducted reviews of the effectiveness of the Group's risk management and internal control systems during the fiscal year 2023. All audit findings were reported and communicated to the Audit Committee, Directors and respective management. Appropriate recommendations for further enhancing the risk management and internal control systems were proposed to the management and had been adopted as the management thought fit.

SHARE OPTION SCHEME AND NEW SHARE OPTION SCHEME

Pursuant to the written resolutions of the Shareholders passed on 8 August 2006, the Company has established a share option scheme (“Share Option Scheme”) whereby the Board may, at their discretion, invite any directors, employees, consultants, professionals, customers, suppliers, agents, partners or advisers of or contractors to the Group (subject to the eligibility requirements as set out therein). The total number of Shares available for issue under the Share Option Scheme and any other schemes must not in aggregate exceed 10% of the issued share capital of the Company as at the listing date on 6 September 2006 unless further Shareholders’ approval has been obtained. In addition, the number of Shares which may be issued upon exercise of all outstanding options granted and yet to be exercised at any time under the Share Option Scheme and any other schemes adopted by the Group shall not exceed 30% of the issued share capital of the Company from time to time. No options may be granted under the Share Option Scheme or any other schemes adopted by the Group if the grant of such option will result in the limit being exceeded. The total number of Shares issued and to be issued upon the exercise of the options granted and to be granted (including both exercised and outstanding options) in any 12 months’ period up to the date of grant to a substantial Shareholder or an independent non-executive director or their associates would not exceed 0.1% of the shares in issue or an aggregate value of HK$5,000,000 unless further Shareholders’ approval has been obtained; and to each other eligible person would not exceed 1% of the Shares in issue.

The purpose of the Share Option Scheme is to recognise and acknowledge the contributions that eligible participants have made or may make to the Group. It also provides the eligible participants with an opportunity to acquire proprietary interests in the Company with a view to (a) motivate the eligible participants to optimise the performance and efficiency for the benefit of the Group; and (b) attract and retain or otherwise maintain ongoing business relationship with the eligible participants whose contributions are, will or expected to be beneficial to the Group.

The Share Option Scheme has expired on 5 September 2016. In order to continue to provide the eligible participants, where appropriate, with an additional incentive by offering them an opportunity to obtain an ownership interest in the Company and to reward them for contributing to the long-term success of the business of the Group, the Board has sought and obtained approval of the Shareholders for the adoption of a new share option scheme (“New Share Option Scheme”) at the annual general meeting of the Company on 16 June 2016. The New Share Option Scheme adopted became effective from 20 June 2016 and will remain in force for a period of 10 years.

Under the New Share Option Scheme, the Board may, at their discretion, grant share options to eligible participants including any directors, employees or partners of the Group. The offer shall remain open for acceptance by the eligible participants for a period of not less than three business days from the date of offer and the Board may, at its discretion, specify the minimum period for which an option must be held before it can be exercised at the time of grant. A non-refundable consideration of HK$10 shall be paid by each grantee on acceptance of the options. The exercise price is to be determined by the Board, and will not be less than the highest of (i) the closing price of the Company’s shares on the date of grant; (ii) the average closing price of the Company’s shares for the five business days immediately preceding the date of grant; and (iii) the nominal value of the Company’s share. The total number of Shares which may be issued under the New Share Option Scheme must not exceed 128,440,000 shares, representing 10% of the issued share capital of the Company as at the date of this annual report. Other major terms of the New Share Option Scheme are substantially similar to those under the Share Option Scheme.

Upon the expiry of the Share Option Scheme, no share options can be further granted thereunder, whereas outstanding share options under the Share Option Scheme remain valid.

The accounting policy adopted for the share options is described in Note 2.17(b) to the consolidated financial statements.

The consolidated financial statements of Win Hanverky Holdings Limited (the “Company”) and its subsidiaries (the “Group”), which are set out on pages 45 to 115, comprise:

- the consolidated statement of financial position as at 31 December 2023;

Our opinion

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position of the Group as at 31 December 2023, and of its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards (“HKFRSs”) issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants (“HKICPA”) and have been properly prepared in compliance with the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

Key Audit Matter

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

The key audit matter identified in our audit is related to impairment assessment of goodwill.

Key Audit Matter

How our audit addressed the Key Audit Matter

Impairment assessment of goodwill

Refer to notes 2.7(a), 2.8, 4(c) and 7 to the consolidated financial statements

As at 31 December 2023, the Group carried a goodwill amounting to approximately HK$186 million on the consolidated statement of financial position, of which approximately HK$76 million and approximately HK$110 million are attributable to the goodwill arisen from the acquisition of the high-end fashion retailing business and the high-end apparel manufacturing and trading business respectively.

The high-end fashion retailing business and the high-end apparel manufacturing and trading business are considered two separate groups of cash generating units ("CGUs").

Goodwill is required to be assessed for impairment at least annually.

Management performed an assessment on impairment of goodwill as at 31 December 2023 and determined the recoverable amount of the CGUs based on value-in-use calculation or fair value less costs of disposal calculation, where appropriate. These calculations used pre-tax cash flow projections covering a five-year period. Cash flows beyond the five-year period were extrapolated using an estimated long-term growth rate. Based on the results of the assessment, management concluded that there was no impairment of goodwill as at 31 December 2023.

We focused on this area as the assessment made by management involved significant estimates and judgements, including the revenue growth, gross margins, and terminal growth rates used to estimate future cash flows and discount rates applied to these cash flow projections of the underlying CGUs.

In assessing the appropriateness of the goodwill impairment assessment performed by management, the following audit procedures have been performed by us:

- Understood and evaluated management's key controls over the impairment assessment process;
- Compared the current year actual cash flows with the prior period cash flow forecast to assess the reliability of management's forecast;
- Assessed the appropriateness of key assumptions used in the cash flow forecast, in particular the forecasted revenue growth and budgeted gross margins, by comparing them against the historical performance of the CGUs and industry data such as gross margins of other market players; the terminal growth rates, by comparing them against the long-term growth forecasts of the garment manufacturing and retail industries; and the discount for lack of marketability by comparing them against other industry data;
- Evaluated the discount rate by assessing the cost of capital of the Group and referenced the cost of capital of other comparable companies in the industry; and
- Evaluated the sensitivity of the Group's discounted cash flow forecast by considering downside scenarios against reasonable possible changes to the key assumptions.

Based on the procedures performed, we consider that the judgements and estimates made by management in respect of the goodwill impairment assessment were supportable by available evidence.

Independent Auditor's Report

OTHER INFORMATION

The directors of the Company are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises all of the information included in the annual report other than the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF DIRECTORS AND THE AUDIT COMMITTEE FOR THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The directors of the Company are responsible for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with HKFRSs issued by the HKICPA and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Audit Committee is responsible for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE AUDIT OF THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. We report our opinion solely to you, as a body, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with HKSA's will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with HKSA's, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with the Audit Committee regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

Independent Auditor's Report

We also provide the Audit Committee with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, actions taken to eliminate threats or safeguards applied.

From the matters communicated with the Audit Committee, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in this independent auditor's report is Chan Kam Chiu, Raymond.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

1 GENERAL INFORMATION

Win Hanverky Holdings Limited (the “Company”) and its subsidiaries (together, the “Group”) are engaged in the manufacturing and selling of garment products, including sportswear, high-end functional outerwear, high-end fashion apparel, and related accessories. Sales are primarily under original equipment manufacturing (“OEM”) arrangements to customers mainly in Europe, the United States, Mainland China and other countries, and under retail modes in Mainland China, Hong Kong, Macau, Taiwan and other Asia-Pacific regions. Its production bases are primarily located in Mainland China, Vietnam and Cambodia. Details of the principal subsidiaries of the Group are set out in Note 33 to these consolidated financial statements.

The Company is an exempted Company with limited liability under the Companies Law, Cap.22, (Law 3 of 1961, as combined and revised) of the Cayman Islands. The address of the Company’s registered office is Cricket Square, Hutchins Drive, P.O. Box 2681, Grand Cayman KY1-1111, Cayman Islands.

The Company has its primary listing on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (“Stock Exchange”).

2 MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The material accounting policies applied in the preparation of these consolidated financial statements are set out below. These policies have been consistently applied to all the years presented, unless otherwise stated.

2.1 Basis of preparation

These consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with all applicable Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards (“HKFRSs”) issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants (“HKICPA”) and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance. The consolidated financial statements also comply with the applicable disclosure provisions of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Stock Exchange. Material accounting policies adopted by the Group are disclosed below.

These consolidated financial statements have been prepared under historical cost convention.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with HKFRSs requires the use of certain critical accounting estimates. It also requires management to exercise its judgement in the process of applying the Group’s accounting policies. The areas involving a higher degree of judgement or complexity, or areas where assumptions and estimates are significant to the consolidated financial statements, are disclosed in Note 4.

The HKICPA has issued a number of new and amended HKFRSs that became applicable for the current reporting period. None of these have had a material effect on the Group’s results and financial position for the current and prior periods. The Group has not applied any new standard or interpretation that is not yet effective for the current reporting period. The Group is in the process of making an assessment of what the impact of those developments is expected to be in the period of initial adoption. So far it has concluded that the adoption of them is unlikely to have a significant impact on the Group’s consolidated financial statements.

2.2 Changes in accounting policies

In June 2022, the Hong Kong Government enacted the Employment and Retirement Scheme Legislation (Offsetting Arrangement) (Amendment) Ordinance 2022 (the “Amendment Ordinance”) which will be effective from 1 May 2025 (the “Transition Date”). Under the Amendment Ordinance, any accrued benefits attributable to the employer’s mandatory contributions under mandatory provident fund scheme (“MPF Benefits”) of an entity would no longer be eligible to offset against its obligations on long service payment (“LSP”) for the portion of the LSP accrued on or after the Transition Date. There is also a change in the calculation basis of last monthly wages for the portion of the LSP accrued before the Transition Date.

Prior to 1 January 2023, the Group applied practical expedient in HKAS 19 paragraph 93(b) (the “Practical Expedient”) to account for the offsetable MPF Benefits as deemed employee contributions to reduce the current service costs in the period in which the related services were rendered.

In July 2023, the HKICPA published “Accounting implications of the abolition of the MPF-LSP offsetting mechanism in Hong Kong” (the “Guidance”) which provides clarified and detailed guidance on the accounting considerations relating to the abolition of the offsetting mechanism. The Guidance clarified that following the enactment of the Amendment Ordinance, LSP is no longer a ‘simple type of contributory plans’ to which the Practical Expedient had been intended to apply.

By following the Guidance, the Group has therefore changed its accounting policy and ceased to apply the Practical Expedient and reattribute the deemed employee contributions on a straight-line basis from the date when services by employees first lead to their benefits in terms of the LSP legislation in accordance with HKAS 19 paragraph 93(a). This change in accounting policy upon the cessation in applying the Practical Expedient has resulted in a catch-up adjustment for past service costs and a corresponding increase in the Group’s LSP obligations in the year of enactment of the Amendment Ordinance (i.e. year ended 31 December 2022). However, since the amount of the catch-up profit or loss adjustment was immaterial with reference to the assessment by external specialist engaged by the Group, the Group did not restate the comparative figure for the consolidated financial statements.

2.3 Consolidation and equity accounting

(a) Subsidiaries

A subsidiary is an entity (including a structured entity) over which the Group has control. The Group controls an entity when the Group is exposed to, or has rights to, variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the entity. Subsidiaries are consolidated from the date on which control is transferred to the Group. They are deconsolidated from the date that control ceases.

Intra-group transactions, balances and unrealised gain on transactions between group companies are eliminated. Unrealised gains/losses are also eliminated. When necessary, amounts reported by subsidiaries have been adjusted to conform with the Group's accounting policies.

(b) Associates

Associates are all entities over which the Group has significant influence but not control, generally accompanying a shareholding of between 20% and 50% of the voting rights. Investments in associates are accounted for using the equity method of accounting. Under the equity method, the investment is initially recognised at cost, and the carrying amount is increased or decreased to recognise the investor's share of the profit or loss of the investee after the date of acquisition.

The Group determines at each reporting date whether there is any objective evidence that the investment in the associate is impaired in accordance with the policy described in Note 2.8.

(c) Business combinations

The Group applies the acquisition method to account for business combinations. The consideration transferred for the acquisition of a subsidiary comprises: the fair values of the assets transferred, the liabilities incurred to the former owners of the acquiree, the equity interests issued by the Group, the fair value of any asset or liability resulting from a contingent consideration arrangement, and the fair value of any pre-existing interest in the subsidiary. Identifiable assets acquired and liabilities and contingent liabilities assumed in a business combination are measured initially at their fair values at the acquisition date.

The Group recognises any non-controlling interest in the acquiree on an acquisition-by-acquisition basis either at fair value or at the non-controlling interests' proportionate share of the acquired entity's net identifiable assets.

Acquisition-related costs are expensed as incurred.

If the business combination is achieved in stages, the carrying value of the acquirer's previously held equity interest in the acquiree is re-measured to fair value at the acquisition date; any gains or losses arising from such re-measurement are recognised in the income statement.

Any consideration to be transferred by the Group classified as financial liabilities is recognised at fair value at the acquisition date. Subsequent changes to the fair value of the consideration that is classified as financial liabilities are recognised in the income statement. Consideration that is classified as equity is not re-measured, and its subsequent settlement is accounted for within equity.

The excess of the consideration transferred, the amount of any non-controlling interest in the acquiree and the acquisition-date fair value of any previous equity interest in the acquiree over the fair value of the identifiable net assets acquired is recorded as goodwill. If the total of consideration transferred, non-controlling interest recognised and previously held interest measured is less than the fair value of the net assets of the subsidiary acquired in the case of a bargain purchase, the difference is recognised directly in the income statement.

(d) Changes in ownership interests in subsidiaries without change of control

Transactions with non-controlling interests that do not result in loss of control are accounted for as equity transactions — that is, as transactions with the owners in their capacity as owners. The difference between fair value of any consideration paid and the relevant share acquired of the carrying value of net assets of the subsidiary is recorded in equity. Gains or losses on disposals to non-controlling interests are also recorded in equity.

(e) Disposal of subsidiaries

When the Group ceases to have control, any retained interest in the entity is re-measured to its fair value at the date when control is lost, with the change in carrying amount recognised in the income statement. The fair value is the initial carrying amount for the purposes of subsequently accounting for the retained interest as an associate, joint venture or financial asset. In addition, any amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income in respect of that entity are accounted for as if the Group had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities. This may mean that amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income are reclassified to the income statement.

2.4 Segment reporting

Operating segments are reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the chief operating decision-maker. The chief operating decision-maker, who is responsible for allocating resources and assessing performance of the operating segments, has been identified as the Executive Committee comprising the executive directors who make strategic decisions.

2.5 Foreign currency translation

(a) Functional and presentation currency

Items included in the financial statements of each of the Group's entities are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates (the "functional currency"). The consolidated financial statements are presented in Hong Kong Dollar ("HK$"), which is the Company's functional and the Group's presentation currency, unless otherwise stated.

(b) Transactions and balances

Foreign currency transactions are translated into the functional currency using the exchange rates prevailing at the dates of the transactions or valuation where items are re-measured. Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions and from the translation at year-end exchange rates of monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are recognised in the income statement.

(c) Group companies

The results and financial position of all the Group entities (none of which has the currency of a hyperinflationary economy) that have a functional currency different from the presentation currency are translated into the presentation currency as follows:

- (i) assets and liabilities for each statement of financial position presented are translated at the closing rate at the date of that statement of financial position;
- (ii) income and expenses for each income statement are translated at average exchange rates (unless this average is not a reasonable approximation of the cumulative effect of the rates prevailing on the transaction dates, in which case income and expenses are translated at the rate on the dates of the transactions); and
- (iii) all resulting currency translation differences are recognised in other comprehensive income.

Goodwill and fair value adjustments arising on the acquisition of a foreign entity are treated as assets and liabilities of the foreign entity and translated at the closing rate. Currency translation differences arising are recognised in other comprehensive income.

2.6 Property, plant and equipment, leased assets and lease liabilities

(a) Property, plant and equipment

Land and buildings comprise mainly manufacturing factories and offices. Property, plant and equipment other than construction in progress are stated at historical cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses (Note 2.6(c) and Note 2.8). Historical cost includes expenditure that is directly attributable to the acquisition of the items.

Construction in progress represents buildings and leasehold improvements in which construction work has not been completed and plant, machinery and equipment pending for installation. It is carried at cost which includes construction expenditures and other direct costs less any impairment losses. On completion, construction in progress is transferred to the appropriate categories of property, plant and equipment at cost less accumulated impairment losses (Note 2.8). No depreciation is provided for construction in progress until it is completed and available for use.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of the replaced part is derecognised. All other repairs and maintenance are charged to the income statement during the financial period in which they are incurred.

The assets' residual values and useful lives are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at the end of each reporting period.

Gains and losses on disposals are determined by comparing proceeds with carrying amount and are recognised within 'other income — net' in the income statement.

(b) Leased assets and lease liabilities

At inception of a contract, the Group assesses whether the contract is, or contains, a lease. A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration. Control is conveyed where the customer has both the right to direct the use of the identified assets and to obtain substantially all of the economic benefits from that use.

At the lease commencement date, the Group recognises a right-of-use asset and a lease liability, except for short-term leases that have a lease term of 12 months or less and leases of low-value assets. The lease payments associated with those leases which are not capitalised are recognised as an expense on a systematic basis over the lease term.

Where the lease is recognised, the lease liability is initially recognised at the present value of the lease payments payable over the lease term, discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease or, if that rate cannot be readily determined, using a relevant incremental borrowing rate. Lease liabilities include the present value of the fixed payments (including in-substance fixed payments), less any lease incentives receivables. After initial recognition, each lease payment was allocated between the liability and finance cost. The finance cost is charged to income statement over the lease period so as to produce a constant periodic rate of interest on the remaining balances of the liability for each period. Variable lease payments that do not depend on an index or rate are not included in the measurement of the lease liability and hence are charged to income statement in the accounting period in which they are incurred.

The right-of-use asset recognised when a lease is recognised is initially measured at cost, which comprises the initial amount of the lease liability plus any lease payments made at or before the commencement date, and any initial direct costs incurred. Where applicable, the cost of the right-of-use assets also includes an estimate of costs to dismantle and remove the underlying asset or to restore the underlying asset or the site on which it is located, discounted to their present value, less any lease incentives received. The right-of-use asset is subsequently stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses (Note 2.6(c) and Note 2.8).

The lease liability is re-measured when there is a change in future lease payments arising from a change in an index or rate, or there is a change in the Group's estimate of the amount expected to be payable under a residual value guarantee, or there is a change arising from the reassessment of whether the Group will be reasonably certain to exercise a purchase, extension or termination option. When the lease liability is re-measured in this way, a corresponding adjustment is made to the carrying amount of the right-of-use asset, or is recorded in income statement if the carrying amount of the right-of-use asset has been reduced to zero.

(c) Depreciation

Depreciation is calculated to write off the cost of items of property, plant and equipment and right-of-use assets, less their estimated residual value, if any, using the straight-line method as follows:

– Freehold land and construction in progress	Not depreciated
– Buildings	10 to 50 years
– Leasehold improvements	Shorter of the unexpired lease term and the estimated useful lives
– Plant and machinery	4 to 10 years
– Furniture and equipment	3 to 10 years
– Motor vehicles and yacht	5 to 10 years
– Right-of-use assets	Shorter of the unexpired lease term and the estimated useful lives

2.7 Intangible assets

(a) Goodwill

Goodwill arises on the acquisition of subsidiaries and associates and represents the excess of the consideration transferred over the Group's interest in net fair value of the net identifiable assets, liabilities and contingent liabilities of the acquiree and the fair value of the non-controlling interest in the acquiree. Goodwill is not amortised but it is tested annually or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate a potential impairment.

For the purpose of impairment testing, goodwill acquired in a business combination is allocated to each of the cash-generating units ("CGUs"), or groups of CGUs, that is expected to benefit from the synergies of the combination. Each unit or group of units to which the goodwill is allocated represents the lowest level within the entity at which the goodwill is monitored for internal management purposes. Goodwill is monitored at the operating segment level.

(b) Trademarks and customer relationship

Separately acquired trademarks and customer relationship are shown at historical cost. Trademarks and customer relationship acquired in a business combination are recognised at fair value at the acquisition date. Trademarks and customer relationship have a finite useful life and are carried at cost less accumulated amortisation and accumulated impairment losses, if any. Amortisation is calculated using the straight-line method to allocate the cost of trademarks and customer relationship over their estimated useful lives of 10 to 20 years.

2.8 Impairment of non-financial assets

Assets that have an indefinite useful life are not subject to amortisation, and are tested at least annually for impairment. Assets that are subject to amortisation are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. An impairment loss is recognised for the amount by which the asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's fair value less costs of disposal ("FVLCOD") and value-in-use ("VIU"). For the purposes of assessing impairment, assets are grouped at the lowest levels for which there are separately identifiable cash flows (i.e. CGUs). Non-financial assets other than goodwill that suffered an impairment are reviewed for possible reversal of the impairment at each reporting date.

2.9 Financial assets

(a) Classification

The Group classifies its financial assets in the following measurement categories:

- those to be measured subsequently at fair value (either through other comprehensive income, or through profit or loss); and
- those to be measured at amortised cost.

The classification depends on the entity's business model for managing the financial assets and the contractual terms of the cash flows.

For assets measured at fair value, gains and losses will either be recorded in profit or loss or other comprehensive income. For investments in equity instruments that are not held for trading, this will depend on whether the Group has made an irrevocable election at the time of initial recognition to account for the equity investment at fair value through other comprehensive income. The Group reclassifies debt instruments only when its business model for managing these assets changes.

(b) Recognition and derecognition

Regular way purchases and sales of financial assets are recognised on the trade-date — the date on which the Group commits to purchase or sell the asset. Financial assets are derecognised when the rights to receive cash flows from the financial assets have expired or have been transferred and the Group has transferred substantially all risks and rewards of ownership.

(c) Measurement

At initial recognition, the Group measures a financial asset at its fair value plus, in the case of a financial asset not at fair value through profit or loss, transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition of the financial asset. Transaction costs of financial assets carried at fair value through profit or loss are expensed in the income statement.

Debt instruments

Subsequent measurement of debt instruments depends on the Group's business model for managing the asset and the cash flow characteristics of the asset. Assets that are held for collection of contractual cash flows where those cash flows represent solely payments of principal and interest are measured at amortised cost. Interest income from these financial assets is included in finance income using the effective interest rate method. Any gain or loss arising on derecognition is recognised directly in the income statement and presented in other income — net, together with foreign exchange gains and losses.

Equity instruments

The Group subsequently measures all equity investments at fair value. Where the Group's management has elected to present fair value gains and losses on equity investments in other comprehensive income, there is no subsequent reclassification of fair value gains and losses to the income statement following the derecognition of the investment. Dividends from such investments continue to be recognised in the income statement as other income when the Group's right to receive payments is established.

Changes in the fair value of financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are recognised as other income — net in the income statement as applicable. Impairment losses (and reversal of impairment losses) on equity investments measured at fair value through other comprehensive income are not reported separately from other changes in fair value.

(d) Impairment

The Group assesses at the end of each reporting period whether there was objective evidence that a financial asset or group of financial assets was impaired. A financial asset or a group of financial assets was impaired and impairment losses were incurred only if there was objective evidence of impairment as a result of one or more events that occurred after the initial recognition of the asset (a “loss event”) and that loss event (or events) has an impact on the estimated future cash flows of the financial asset or group of financial assets that could be reliably estimated.

For loans and receivables which are financial assets carried at amortised cost, the amount of the loss is measured as the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows (excluding future credit losses that have not been incurred) discounted at the financial asset's original effective interest rate. The carrying amount of the asset is reduced and the amount of the loss is recognised in the income statement. If, in a subsequent period, the amount of the impairment loss decreases and the decrease could be related objectively to an event occurring after the impairment was recognised (such as an improvement in the debtor's credit rating), the reversal of the previously recognised impairment loss is recognised in the income statement.

(e) Offsetting

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount reported in the statement of financial position when there is a legally enforceable right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis, or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

2.10 Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost is determined using weighted average method. The cost of finished goods and work in progress comprises raw materials, direct labour, other direct costs and related production overheads (based on normal operating capacity). It excludes borrowing costs. Costs of purchased inventories are determined after deducting rebates and discounts. Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less applicable variable selling expenses.

2.11 Trade and other receivables

Trade receivables are amounts due from customers for goods sold or services performed in the ordinary course of business. If collection of trade and other receivables is expected in one year or less (or in the normal operating cycle of the business if longer), they are classified as current assets. If not, they are presented as non-current assets.

Trade and other receivables are recognised initially at fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method, less provision for impairment.

2.12 Cash and cash equivalents

In the consolidated cash flow statement, cash and cash equivalents include cash at bank and on hand and short-term bank deposits.

2.13 Share capital

Ordinary shares are classified as equity.

Incremental costs directly attributable to the issue of new shares or options are shown in equity as a deduction from the proceeds.

2.14 Trade and other payables

Trade payables are obligations for goods or services that have been acquired. Trade payables are classified as current liabilities if payment is due within one year or less (or in the normal operating cycle of the business if longer). If not, they are presented as non-current liabilities.

Trade payables are recognised initially at fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

2.15 Borrowings and borrowing costs

Borrowings are initially recognised at fair value, net of transaction costs incurred. Borrowings are subsequently carried at amortised cost; any difference between the proceeds (net of transaction costs) and the redemption value is recognised in the income statement over the period of the borrowings using the effective interest method. Fees paid on the establishment of loan facilities are recognised as transaction costs of the loan to the extent that it is probable that some or all of the facility will be drawn down, and the fee is deferred until the draw-down occurs. To the extent there is no evidence that it is probable that some or all of the facility will be drawn down, the fee is capitalised as a prepayment for liquidity services and amortised over the period of the facility to which it relates.

Borrowings are removed from the statement of financial position when the obligation specified in the contract is discharged, cancelled or expired. The difference between the carrying amount of a financial liability that has been extinguished or transferred to another party and the consideration paid, including any non-cash assets transferred or liabilities assumed, is recognised in the income statement as finance costs.

Borrowings are classified as current liabilities unless the Group has an unconditional right to defer settlement of the liability for at least 12 months after the end of the reporting period.

General and specific borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of qualifying assets, which are assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale, are added to the cost of those assets, until such time as the assets are substantially ready for their intended use or sale.

Investment income earned on the temporary investment of specific borrowings pending their expenditure on qualifying assets is deducted from the borrowing costs eligible for capitalisation.

Other borrowing costs are expensed in the period in which they are incurred.

2.16 Current and deferred tax

Tax expense for the period comprises current and deferred tax. Tax is recognised in the income statement, except to the extent that it relates to items recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity. In this case the tax is also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, respectively.

(a) Current tax

Current tax charge is calculated on the basis of the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the end of the reporting period in the countries where the Company's subsidiaries and associates operate and generate taxable income. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulation is subject to interpretation. It establishes provisions where appropriate on the basis of amounts expected to be paid to the tax authorities.

(b) Deferred tax

Deferred tax is provided in full, using the liability method, on temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the consolidated financial statements. However, deferred tax liabilities are not recognised if they arise from the initial recognition of goodwill. Deferred tax is also not accounted for if it arises from initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction other than a business combination that at the time of the transaction affects neither accounting nor taxable profit or loss. Deferred tax is determined using tax rates (and laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the reporting date and are expected to apply when the related deferred tax asset is realised or the deferred tax liability is settled.

Deferred tax assets are recognised only if it is probable that future taxable profit will be available to utilise those temporary differences and losses.

Deferred tax liabilities and assets are not recognised for temporary differences between the carrying amount and tax bases of investments in foreign operations where the Group is able to control the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences and it is probable that the differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets against current tax liabilities and when the deferred tax assets and liabilities relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority on either the taxable entity or different taxable entities where there is an intention to settle the balance on a net basis.

2.17 Employee benefits

(a) Post-employment obligation

Group companies participate in several defined contribution retirement schemes.

A defined contribution plan is a pension plan under which the Group pays fixed contributions into a separate entity. The Group has no legal or constructive obligations to pay further contributions if the fund does not hold sufficient assets to pay all employees the benefits relating to employee service in the current and prior periods.

The Group pays contributions to publicly or privately administered pension insurance plans on a mandatory, contractual or voluntary basis. The Group has no further payment obligations once the contributions have been paid. The contributions are recognised as employee benefit expenses when they are due. Prepaid contributions are recognised as an asset to the extent that a cash refund or a reduction in the future payments is available.

(b) Share-based compensation

The fair value of the employee services received in exchange for the grant of the options is recognised as an expense with a corresponding increase in equity. The total amount to be expensed is determined by reference to the fair value of the options granted:

- including any market performance conditions (for example, an entity's share price);
- excluding the impact of any service and non-market performance vesting conditions (for example, profitability, sales growth targets and remaining an employee of the entity over a specified time period); and
- including the impact of any non-vesting conditions (for example, the requirement for employees to save or hold shares for a specified time period).

Non-market vesting conditions are included in assumptions about the number of options that are expected to vest. The total expense is recognised over the vesting period, which is the period over which all of the specified vesting conditions are to be satisfied. At the end of each reporting period, the Group revises its estimates of the number of options that are expected to vest based on the non-market performance and service conditions. It recognises the impact of the revision to original estimates, if any, in the income statement, with a corresponding adjustment to equity.

When the options are exercised, the Company issues new shares. The proceeds received net of any directly attributable transaction costs are credited to share capital (nominal value) and share premium.

(c) Bonus plans

The Group recognises a liability and an expense for bonuses. It recognises a provision where contractually obliged or where there is a past practice that has created a constructive obligation.

(d) Employee leave entitlements

Employee entitlements to annual leave are recognised when they accrue to employees. A provision is made for the estimated liability for annual leave as a result of services rendered by employees up to the end of the reporting period.

Employee entitlements to sick leave and maternity leave are not recognised until the time of leave.

(e) Termination benefits

Termination benefits are payable when employment is terminated by the Group before the normal retirement date, or whenever an employee accepts voluntary redundancy in exchange for these benefits. The Group recognises termination benefits at the earliest of the following dates: (a) when the Group can no longer withdraw the offer of those benefits; and (b) when the entity recognises costs for a restructuring that is within the scope of Hong Kong Accounting Standard (“HKAS”) 37 and involves the payment of termination benefits. In the case of an offer made to encourage voluntary redundancy, the termination benefits are measured based on the number of employees expected to accept the offer. Benefits falling due more than 12 months after the end of the reporting period are discounted to their present value.

2.18 Provisions, contingent liabilities and financial guarantee

(a) Provisions

Provisions are recognised when the Group has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of past events; it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation; and the amount has been reliably estimated. Provisions are not recognised for future operating losses.

Where there are a number of similar obligations, the likelihood that an outflow will be required in settlement is determined by considering the class of obligations as a whole. A provision is recognised even if the likelihood of an outflow with respect to any one item included in the same class of obligations may be small.

Provisions are measured at the present value of the expenditures expected to be required to settle the obligation using a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the obligation. The increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognised as interest expense.

(b) Contingent liabilities

A contingent liability is a possible obligation that arises from past events and whose existence will only be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the Group. It can also be a present obligation arising from past events that is not recognised because it is not probable that an outflow of economic resources will be required or the amount of obligation cannot be measured reliably.

A contingent liability is not recognised but is disclosed in the financial statements. When a change in the probability of an outflow occurs so that outflow is probable, it will then be recognised as a provision.

(c) Financial guarantee

Financial guarantee contracts are contracts that require the issuer to make specified payments to reimburse the holder for a loss it incurs because a specified debtor fails to make payments when due, in accordance with the terms of a debt instrument. The Company has given certain financial guarantees to banks, financial institutions and other bodies on behalf of its subsidiaries to secure loans, overdrafts and other banking facilities. The Company does not recognise liabilities for financial guarantees at inception, but performs a liability adequacy test at each reporting date by comparing its net liability regarding the financial guarantee with the amount that would be required if the financial guarantee were to result in a present legal or constructive obligation.

2.19 Revenue and other income

Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable, and represents amounts receivable for goods supplied, stated net of discounts, returns and value added taxes. The Group recognises revenue when the amount of revenue can be reliably measured; when it is probable that future economic benefits will flow to the entity; and when specific criteria have been met for each of the Group's activities, as described below. The Group bases its estimates of return on historical results, taking into consideration the type of customer, the type of transaction and the specifics of each arrangement.

(a) Sale of goods – wholesale

Sales are recognised when control of the products has transferred and there is no unfulfilled obligation that could affect the customer's acceptance of the products. Delivery occurs when the products have been transported to the specified location, the risks of obsolescence and loss have been transferred to the customer, and either the customer has accepted the products in accordance with the sales contract, the acceptance provisions have lapsed, or the Group has objective evidence that all criteria for acceptance have been satisfied.

As receivable is recognised when the goods are delivered as this is the point in time that the consideration is unconditional because only the passage of time is required before the payment is due.

(b) Sale of goods – retail

Revenue from the sale of goods is recognised when a group entity sells a product to the customer.

Payment of the transaction price is due immediately when the customer purchases the goods and takes delivery in store.

(c) Service income

Revenue is recognised over time based on work performed by which performance obligation is satisfied through the transfer of service to customer.

(d) Interest income

Interest income is recognised using the effective interest method. When a loan and receivable is impaired, the Group reduces the carrying amount to its recoverable amount, being the estimated future cash flow discounted at the original effective interest rate of the instrument, and continues unwinding the discount as interest income. Interest income on impaired loan and receivables is recognised using the original effective interest rate.

(e) Rental income

Rental income is recognised in the income statement on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease.

2.20 Government grants

Grants from the government are recognised at their fair value where there is a reasonable assurance that the grant will be received and the Group will comply with all attached conditions.

Government grants relating to costs are deferred and recognised in the income statement over the period necessary to match them with the costs that they are intended to compensate.

2.21 Dividend distributions

Dividend distributions to the Company's equity holders are recognised as a liability in the Group's and the Company's financial statements in the period in which the dividends are approved by the Company's shareholders or directors where appropriate.

2.22 Discontinued operations

A discontinued operation is a component of the entity that has been ceased, disposed of or is classified as held for sale and that represents a separate major line of business or geographical area of operations, is part of a single co-ordinated plan to dispose of such a line of business or area of operations, or is a subsidiary acquired exclusively with a view of resale. The results of discontinued operations are presented separately in the income statement.

2.23 Separate financial statements

Investments in subsidiaries are accounted for at cost less impairment. Cost also includes direct attributable costs of investment. The results of subsidiaries are accounted for by the Company on the basis of dividend received and receivable.

Impairment testing of the investments in subsidiaries is required upon receiving a dividend from these investments if the dividend exceeds the total comprehensive income of the subsidiary in the period the dividend is declared or if the carrying amount of the investment in the separate financial statements exceeds the carrying amount in the consolidated financial statements of the investee's net assets including goodwill.

3 FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT

3.1 Financial risk factors

The Group's activities expose it to a variety of financial risks: foreign exchange risk, credit risk, liquidity risk and cash flow and fair value interest-rate risk.

The Group's risk management programme focuses on the unpredictability of financial markets and, where considered necessary, seeks to minimise potential adverse effects on the Group's financial performance. The Group has not used derivative financial instruments to hedge its risk exposures to changes in foreign currency exchange rates and interest rates.

(a) Foreign exchange risk

The Group is exposed to foreign exchange risk arising from various currency exposures, primarily with respect to the Chinese Renminbi ("RMB") and United States Dollar ("USD"). Foreign exchange risk arises from future commercial transactions, recognised assets and liabilities, and net investments in foreign operations.

As at 31 December 2023, if RMB had strengthened/weakened by 10% (2022: 10%) against the HK$ with all other variables held constant, loss for the year (2022: profit) would have been approximately HK$10,524,000 lower/higher (2022: HK$8,902,000 higher/lower) mainly as a result of foreign exchange gains/losses on translation of RMB denominated inter-company balances, trade and other payables, cash and bank balances, and trade and other receivables.

The foreign currency exchange exposure on assets and liabilities denominated in USD is considered to be minimal as HK$ is currently pegged to USD.

(b) Credit risk

Credit risk arises from pledged bank deposits and cash and bank balances, deposits and other receivables, as well as credit exposures to customers, including trade and bills receivable.

Trade and bills receivable

Debtors of the Group may be affected by the unfavourable economic conditions and the lower liquidity situation which could in turn impact their ability to repay the amounts owed to the Group. Deteriorating operating conditions for debtors may also have an impact on management's cash flow forecasts and assessment of the impairment of receivables. To the extent that information is available, management has properly reflected updated estimates of expected future cash flows in their impairment assessments.

The Group has policies in place to ensure that sales are made to customers with an appropriate credit history. It performs periodic credit evaluations/reviews of its customers.

Majority of trade receivables are with customers having good credit history. The Group usually grants its customers credit terms within 90 days. Most of the Group's sales are on open account, while sales made to a small number of customers are covered by letters of credit issued by banks or settled by documents against payment issued by banks.

As at 31 December 2023, the Group's trade and bills receivable due from one single group of customer (2022: one single group of customer) represented approximately 48% (2022: 45%) of its total trade and bills receivable from third parties.

The Group applies the HKFRS 9 simplified approach to measure expected credit losses which uses a lifetime expected loss allowance for all trade and bills receivable. To measure the expected credit losses, trade and bills receivable have been grouped based on shared credit risk characteristics and the days past due.

Trade receivables with higher risk of default were assessed individually for impairment allowance. As at 31 December 2023, the balances of such individually assessed trade receivables of Manufacturing Business and High-end Fashion Retailing Business were HK$1,409,000 (2022: HK$1,426,000) and HK$7,383,000 (2022: HK$1,751,000) respectively. Loss allowances were fully provided for the individually assessed trade receivables aforesaid as at 31 December 2023 and 2022.

Other than those trade receivables which were assessed by individually basis, trade receivables were grouped based on shared credit risk characteristics and the days past due. The expected loss rates are based on the payment profiles of sales over a period of 12 months before 31 December 2023 and 2022 respectively and the corresponding historical credit losses experienced within this period. The historical loss rates are further adjusted to reflect current and forward-looking information on macroeconomic factors affecting the ability of the customers to settle the receivables. In the course of evaluating relevant forward-looking information, the Group has identified the changes of the credit ratings of the key industry participants or gross domestic product of the countries in which it sells its goods to be the most relevant factors, and accordingly adjusts the historical loss rates based on expected changes in these factors. As at 31 December 2023, the loss allowance was determined as follows:

Measurement of expected credit loss on collective basis – Manufacturing

	Listed customers HK$'000	2023 Private customers HK$'000	Total HK$'000
Gross carrying amount	307,524	79,382	386,906

Expected credit loss rate	0.3%	1%	3%	6%	14%	36%	99%	5%

No loss allowance was recognised for the year ended 31 December 2022.

Impairment losses on trade and bills receivable are presented as net impairment losses in general and administrative expenses. Subsequent recoveries of amounts previously written off are credited against the same line item. Trade and bills receivable are written off when there is no reasonable expectation of recovery. Indicators that there is no reasonable expectation of recovery include, amongst others, the failure of a debtor to engage in a repayment plan with the Group, and a failure to make contractual payments for a period greater than a year past due.

Other financial assets at amortised cost

Other financial assets at amortised cost include deposits and other receivables. Management performs regular assessment on credit risk associated with these amounts based on the repayment history and financial position of the counterparties and other forward-looking factors. Management does not expect any losses from non-performance by the counterparties as they have no default history in the past and these counterparties had strong capacity to meet its contractual cash flow obligations in the near term. Management applies the HKFRS 9 general approach to measure expected credit losses which uses a twelve-month expected loss allowance for all deposits and other receivables. No impairment losses were provided for the years ended 31 December 2023 and 2022.

Cash and cash equivalents

The Group has policies to place deposits and cash and cash equivalents only with major financial institutions. Management does not expect any losses from non-performance by these financial institutions as they have no default history in the past.

(c) Liquidity risk

Prudent liquidity risk management includes maintaining sufficient cash and the availability of funding from an adequate amount of banking facilities. Certain of the Group's banking facilities are subject to fulfilment of financial covenants as required by the banks. The Group regularly monitors its compliance with these covenants and re-negotiates to relax the undertakings or apply waivers against these undertakings from respective banks when necessary. The Group expects that there will be steady cash inflow from operations, coupled with sufficient cash and bank balances and based on its financial records and long banking relationships to continue its available banking facilities. Management's assessment indicates that the Group has adequate liquidity and financial resources to cover its operating costs and meet its financial obligations as and when they fall due in the coming twelve months from the date of these consolidated financial statements. Surplus cash held by Group entities over and above balances required for working capital management is invested in interest-bearing bank accounts and bank deposits with appropriate maturities.

	2023 HK$'000	2022 HK$'000
Floating rates	666,222	432,232

The banking facilities are subject to regular review at various dates in 2024.

(d) Cash flow and fair value interest-rate risk

As at 31 December 2023, the Group held interest-bearing assets including the pledged bank deposits, short-term bank deposits and amounts due from related parties. The interest-bearing assets are at floating rates. Except for the bank borrowings as at 31 December 2023, the Group has no other significant interest-bearing liabilities. At the respective end of the reporting periods, if interest rates had increased/decreased by one percentage point (2022: one percentage point) and all other variables were held constant, the Group's loss before tax (2022: profit) would increase/decrease by approximately HK$3,766,000 for the year ended 31 December 2023 (2022: decrease/increase by HK$6,670,000). The fluctuation is attributable to interest income from pledged bank deposits, short-term bank deposits, amounts due from related parties and interest expense on bank borrowings.

3.2 Capital risk management

The Group's objectives when managing capital are to safeguard the Group's ability to continue as a going concern in order to provide returns for the Company's shareholders and benefits for other stakeholders and to maintain an optimal capital structure to reduce the cost of capital. In order to maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Group may adjust the amount of dividends paid to shareholders, issue new shares or sell assets to reduce debt.

Consistent with others in the industry, the Group monitors capital on the basis of the net gearing ratio. This ratio is calculated as total borrowings (including bank borrowings and loans from non-controlling interests of subsidiaries) less cash and bank balances, divided by total equity.

The net gearing ratios at 31 December 2023 and 2022 were as follows:

	Note	2023 HK$'000	2022 HK$'000
Bank borrowings	15	472,760	789,236
Loans from non-controlling interests of subsidiaries	27(c)	1,864	4,904
Less: Cash and bank balances	12	(209,456)	(370,489)
		265,168	423,651
Total equity		1,440,781	1,859,765
Net gearing ratio		18.4%	22.8%

The decrease in net gearing ratio above resulted primarily from decrease in bank borrowings.

3.3 Fair value estimation

The carrying values of pledged bank deposits and cash and bank balances approximate their fair values.

The carrying values less impairment provision of trade and bills receivable, trade and bills payable, and financial assets and liabilities measured at amortised cost are a reasonable approximation of their fair values.

The carrying values of borrowings approximate their fair values since the interest payable on these borrowings is either close to current market rates or the borrowings are of a short-term nature.

4 CRITICAL ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES AND JUDGEMENTS

The Group makes estimates and assumptions concerning the future. Estimates and judgements are continually evaluated and are based on historical experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. The resulting accounting estimates will, by definition, seldom equal the related actual results. The estimates and assumptions that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year are addressed below.

(a) Impairment of property, plant and equipment and leased assets

Property, plant and equipment and leased assets are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. The recoverable amounts are determined based on VIU calculations or market valuations. These calculations require the use of judgements and estimates.

Management judgement is required in the area of asset impairment particularly in assessing: (i) whether an event has occurred that may indicate that the related asset value may not be recoverable; (ii) whether the carrying value of an asset can be supported by the recoverable amount, being the higher of FVLCOB or net present value of future cash flows which are estimated based upon the continued use of the asset in the business; and (iii) the appropriate key assumptions to be applied in preparing cash flow projections including whether these cash flow projections are discounted using an appropriate rate. Changing the assumptions selected by management in assessing impairment, including the discount rates, could materially affect the net present value used in the impairment test and as a result affect the Group's financial position and results of operations. If there is a significant adverse change in the projected performance and resulting future cash flow projections, it may be necessary to take an impairment charge to the income statement.

In light of the potential adverse impact arising from the low utilisation of production facilities which might adversely impact the recoverable amounts of the assets used within the manufacturing business, an asset impairment assessment was carried out against the under-utilised production facilities and an impairment of property, plant and equipment and leased assets of HK$23,446,000 was recognised for the year ended 31 December 2023 (2022: Nil) from continuing operations.

Given the persistently competitive retail market which might adversely impact the recoverable amounts of the assets used within the retail stores, an asset impairment assessment was carried out against the underperforming retail stores and an impairment of property, plant and equipment and leased assets of HK$17,577,000 and HK$12,747,000 were recognised for the year ended 31 December 2023 (2022: Nil) from continuing operations and discontinued operations respectively.

Each production plant or retail store was considered as a separate CGU and the respective recoverable amounts were assessed based on VIU calculations. Key assumptions used in the calculations included the forecasted sales performance and operating costs of each production plant or retail store as well as the discount rate applied to the forecasted future cash flows of these production plants or retail stores.

(b) Useful lives and residual values of property, plant and equipment, leased assets and intangible assets

The Group's management determines the estimated useful lives and residual values (if applicable) and consequently related depreciation/amortisation charges for its property, plant and equipment, leased assets and intangible assets. These estimates are based on the historical experience of the actual useful lives of property, plant and equipment, leased assets and intangible assets of similar nature and functions, or based on the estimated periods that the Group intends to derive future economic benefits from the use of these assets. Management will increase the depreciation/amortisation charge where useful lives are less than previously estimated, and it will write-off or write-down technically obsolete or non-strategic assets that have been abandoned or sold.

Actual economic lives may differ from estimated useful lives; and actual residual values may differ from estimated residual values. Periodic review could result in a change in depreciable lives and residual values and therefore depreciation/amortisation expense in future periods.

(c) Impairment of goodwill

The Group tests annually whether goodwill has suffered any impairment in accordance with the accounting policy stated in Note 2.7(a) and Note 2.8. Goodwill is allocated to the high-end apparel manufacturing and trading business CGU resulted from the acquisition of Charmtech Industrial Limited and its subsidiary and Sport Field Limited and its subsidiaries (collectively "High-end Apparel Manufacturing and Trading Group") amounting to HK$109,459,000, which was included in the Manufacturing segment; and the high-end fashion retailing business CGU resulted from the acquisition of Shine Gold Limited and its subsidiaries (collectively "High-end Fashion Retailing Group") amounting to HK$76,133,000, which was included in the High-end Fashion Retailing segment.

The recoverable amounts of groups of CGUs have been determined based on VIU or FVLCOB calculations, where appropriate. These calculations require significant judgment and estimates. No impairment was recognised against these goodwill during the year ended 31 December 2023.

For goodwill resulted from the acquisition of High-end Apparel Manufacturing and Trading Group, if the budgeted revenue in the forecast period has been 5% lower or the discount rate used in the VIU calculation has been 1% higher than management's estimates as at 31 December 2023, still no impairment against goodwill would be recognised by the Group. For goodwill resulted from the acquisition of High-end Fashion Retailing Group, if the budgeted revenue in the forecast period has been 1% lower or the discount rate used in the FVLCOB calculation has been 1% higher than management's estimates as at 31 December 2023, still no impairment against goodwill would be recognised by the Group. A decrease in the budgeted revenue by 2.5% or an increase in the budgeted discount rate by 3% would result in the recoverable amount of the high-end fashion retailing business CGU as at 31 December 2023 being equal to its carrying amount. These sensitivity analyses are for illustration purposes only. They are based on changing the relevant assumption while holding other assumptions unchanged. In practice, the VIU and FVLCOB calculations do not necessarily change in isolation and the actual results in the future may differ from these analyses.

(d) Impairment of trademarks and customer relationship

The Group tests whether trademarks and customer relationship have suffered any impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable in accordance with the accounting policy stated in Note 2.8. The Group's customer relationship arose from the acquisition of High-end Apparel Manufacturing and Trading Group. Its recoverable amount was assessed in the impairment assessment together with the goodwill of High-end Apparel Manufacturing and Trading Group (Note 4(c)).

(e) Lease term

In determining the lease term, management considers all facts and circumstances that create an economic incentive to exercise an extension option, or not exercise a termination option. Extension options (or periods after termination options) are only included in the lease term if the lease is reasonably certain to be extended (or not terminated). Most extension options of the leases have not been included in the lease liabilities because the extension options are subject to negotiation and agreement of both the Group and the respective lessors.

(f) Net realisable value of inventories

Net realisable value of inventories is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less estimated costs of completion and selling expenses. These estimates are based on current market conditions and the historical experience of manufacturing and selling products of similar nature. It could change significantly as a result of changes in customer taste and competitor actions in response to changes in market conditions. Management reassesses these estimates at the end of each reporting period.

(g) Trade and bills receivable and other financial assets measured at amortised cost

The Group's management determines the provision for impairment of trade and bills receivable based on the expected credit loss of the receivables. This assessment is based on the historical repayment pattern of customers of similar nature and other forward-looking factors such as current market conditions where applicable, and requires the use of judgements and estimates. Management reassesses the impairment at the end of each reporting period.

(h) Income taxes

The Group is subject to income taxes in numerous jurisdictions. Significant judgement is required in determining the provision for income taxes. There are many transactions and calculations for which the ultimate tax determination is uncertain during the ordinary course of business. The Group recognises liabilities for anticipated tax audit issues based on estimates of whether additional taxes will be due. Where the final tax outcome of these matters is different from the amounts that were initially recorded, such differences will impact the current tax and deferred tax provisions in the period in which such determination is made. Deferred tax assets relating to temporary differences and tax losses are recognised when management expects it is probable that future taxable profits will be available to utilise the temporary differences or tax losses. Management reassesses its expectation at the end of each reporting period based on the latest business plan and forecasts.

5 SEGMENT INFORMATION

The chief operating decision-maker has been identified collectively as the executive directors. The executive directors review the Group's internal reporting in order to assess performance and allocate resources and report segment performance based on internal reporting.

The executive directors review the performance of the Group mainly from a business operation perspective. The major business segments of the Group for the year ended 31 December 2023 are Manufacturing and High-end Fashion Retailing.

- The Manufacturing segment represents manufacturing and sales of (i) sportswear and (ii) high-end functional outerwear primarily under OEM arrangements to customers mainly in Europe, the United States, Mainland China and other countries.
- The High-end Fashion Retailing segment represents retailing of high-end fashion products in Mainland China, Hong Kong, Macau, Taiwan and other Asia-Pacific regions.
- During the year ended 31 December 2023, the Group entered into a disposal agreement with a third party to sell, assign and novate the inventories and the licensed stores assets for the fashion brand "Champion" to the third party (the "Disposal"). The Group ceased to operate licensed stores of "Champion" after the completion of the Disposal in December 2023, related operations are reclassified from the High-end Fashion Retailing segment and regarded as discontinued operations (Noted 28). The comparative segment information for the year ended 31 December 2022 has been represented to align with the current year's disclosure.

The executive directors assess the performance of the business segments based on a measure of operating results of each segment, which excludes net finance costs in the result for each operating segment. Other information provided to the executive directors is measured in a manner consistent with that in the consolidated financial statements.

Disaggregation of revenue from contracts with customer by products or service lines is as follows:

	2023 HK$'000	2022 HK$'000 (Restated)
Continuing operations
Sales of goods	3,046,124	4,073,972
Provision of services	27,562	10,190
	3,073,686	4,084,162

For the year ended 31 December 2023, revenue of approximately HK$1,670,127,000 (2022: HK$2,473,096,000), representing 54.3% (2022: 60.6% (restated)) of the Group's total revenue, was derived from a single group of external customers and was attributable to the Manufacturing segment.

(a) Reconciliation of net book amount (Continued)

Notes:

- (i) Freehold land is located in the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan and Cambodia.
- (ii) During the year ended 31 December 2023, impairment loss of HK$16,412,000 (2022: Nil) and HK$7,034,000 (2022: Nil) had been included in “cost of sales” and “general and administrative expenses” of continuing operations in the consolidated income statement respectively for certain production facilities of Sportswear Manufacturing Business, and impairment loss of HK$17,577,000 (2022: Nil) and HK$12,747,000 (2022: Nil) had been included in “selling and distribution costs” of continuing operations and discontinued operations respectively in the consolidated income statement for the retail stores assets of High-end Fashion Retailing Business.
- (iii) As at 31 December 2023, land and properties with carrying value of HK$71,336,000 (2022: HK$74,499,000) were pledged to banks for certain banking facilities of the Group (Note 15).
- (iv) As at 31 December 2023 and 2022, the Group leased various land, retail stores, offices, warehouses, plant and equipment, and recognised as right-of-use assets (Note (b)).

(b) Right-of-use assets

- (i) The Group leases various land, retail stores, offices, warehouses, plant and equipment. As at 31 December 2023 and 2022, the net book amounts of right-of-use assets by class and related lease liabilities are as follows:

	2023 HK$'000	2022 HK$'000 (Restated)
Continuing operations
Depreciation and amortisation
– Land and buildings	113,269	102,731

Interest on lease liabilities (Note 20)	13,511	14,120
Short-term leases and leases of low value assets	11,571	15,364
Additions of right-of-use assets	105,175	74,187
Total cash outflow for leases	180,325	158,171

- (iii) Lease terms are negotiated on an individual basis and contain a wide range of different terms and conditions. Rental contracts are typically made for fixed periods of 1 to 10 years, but may have extension and termination options. These are used to maximise operational flexibility in terms of managing the assets used in the Group's operations.
- (iv) The Group leased a number of retail stores which contain variable lease payment terms that are based on sales generated. For individual stores, up to 100% of lease payments are on the basis of variable payment terms with percentage ranging from 3% to 23% (2022: 3% to 23%) of sales. Variable lease payments that depend on sales are recognised in income statement in the period in which the condition that triggers those payments occurs. As at 31 December 2023, it is estimated that an increase in sales generated from continuing operations of these retail stores by 5% would have increased the lease payments by HK$2,146,000 (2022: HK$1,971,000 (restated)).

The recoverable amounts of the groups of CGUs are determined based on VIU or FVLCOB calculations, where appropriate. These calculations use pre-tax cash flow projections covering a five-year period of the related business based on the latest financial budgets and future business plans approved by management.

The key assumptions used in estimating the recoverable amounts are as follows:

	2023	2022
High-end apparel manufacturing and trading
Weighted average annual revenue growth rate during the forecast period (Note (a))	13%	4%
Growth rate beyond the forecast period (Note (b))	3%	3%
Pre-tax discount rate (Note (c))	14%	14%
High-end fashion retailing
Weighted average annual revenue growth rate during the forecast period (Note (a))	7%	14%
Growth rate beyond the forecast period (Note (b))	3%	3%
Pre-tax discount rate (Note (c))	15%	15%
Discount for lack of marketability	7%	7%

Notes:

- (a) Management determined revenue growth rate and budgeted gross profit margin based on past performance and its expectations of market development.
- (b) Cash flows beyond five-year period are extrapolated using an estimated growth rate of 3% (2022: 3%) which do not exceed the long-term average growth rates for the businesses in which the CGUs operate.
- (c) The discount rates used are pre-tax and reflect specific risks relating to the relevant CGUs.
- (d) The FVLCOB calculation is a level 3 fair value measurement.

During the year ended 31 December 2023, goodwill of HK$14,502,000 was allocated in association with the Disposal (Noted 28(b)). No impairment was recognised in respect of the high-end apparel manufacturing and trading business and high-end fashion retailing business CGUs during the year ended 31 December 2023 (2022: Nil).
