MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

OVERVIEW

In 2024, the global economy experienced modest growth. Advanced economies saw a slight uptick, while emerging markets experienced a marginal slowdown. Key factors influencing this economic landscape included geopolitical tensions, trade policy uncertainties, and fluctuations in commodity markets.

The ongoing Russia-Ukraine conflict and US-China trade tensions continued to cause significant disruption to global economy, slowing down and disrupting trade flows, increasing oil prices and escalating inflation. Besides that, Donald Trump's announcement on the 10% additional tariffs on Chinese goods is likely to dampen Singapore's export growth and business investment as business investment in Singapore is closely linked to exports. This also effectively shuts many Chinese exports out of the US market and will result in China's overcapacity which eventually caused influx of cheap imports to Southeast Asia and hurt Southeast Asian manufacturers.

The instability in the Red Sea corridor led to increased volatility in commodity markets. Extended shipping routes and heightened risks contributed to fluctuating prices, impacting traders and brokers. The Red Sea crisis had profound implications for global logistics, broking, and commodity trading, underscoring the vulnerability of international trade to regional conflicts and the importance of strategic maritime routes like the Red Sea and the Suez Canal.

For the year ended 31 December 2024, the Group's revenue amounted to HK$38,885,894,000 (2023: HK$37,226,295,000); while the net profit for the year amounted to HK$348,307,000 (2023: HK$79,194,000). The Group reported a net profit of HK$Nil (2023: HK$21,471,000) from discontinued operation and net profit of HK$348,307,000 (2023: HK$57,723,000) from continuing operations. The increase in net profit from continuing operations is mainly attributable to (i) improved profitability from its concentrates business under commodity marketing; (ii) better margins achieved by freight logistics from elevated ocean freight rates despite the economic disruption from geopolitical tensions and Red Sea crisis; (iii) there was a fair value loss on an unlisted equity investment in a limited partnership engaged in property investment in the United States, which was measured at fair value through profit or loss and recorded in the prior financial year. No such fair value loss was recorded for the financial year ended 31 December 2024.

The Group remains nimble and resilient to the challenging market and was able to mitigate risks in the volatile market, seize opportunities to maximise profitability with long-term view to achieve stability, operational efficiency and global presence.

Logistics Services

Warehousing and Integrated Logistics

The warehousing industry experienced a softening of market rates after peaking in late 2023 and early 2024. Despite market volatility due to US-China trade tensions, our warehouses maintained 100% utilisation, with stable demand expected over the next 12 months. New warehouse developments were minimal in the financial year 2024, but several projects are set to be completed in the financial year 2025.

Our warehouse division maintained stability by optimising space, improving safety standards such as certified racking system, and enhancing technology through warehouse management system. Rising costs were addressed through layout optimisation and procurement strategies, with a continued focus on innovation and efficiency.

Container depot activity remained steady, with limited recovery in volumes. The exit of mid-sized competitors in Singapore provided some rate stability, though potential tariff shifts in 2025 could impact supply chains and customer volumes.

In transport services, the division showed resilience amid a petrochemical downturn and fluctuating fuel costs. Efficiency improvements through cost management, fleet optimisation, and technology upgrades (e.g., electric van trials and real-time tracking) helped mitigate cost pressures.

Despite global challenges, our cold chain logistics and wine storage businesses delivered strong operational efficiency and strategic growth. Cold chain logistics maintained steady performance, while our premium wine storage solutions retained market leadership with improved margins.

Looking ahead, we are well-positioned for sustainable growth, supported by market leadership, operational efficiencies, and strategic initiatives focused on innovation and service excellence.

Freight Logistics

In the first half of 2024, the freight market was significantly influenced by events in the Red Sea and the Middle East, as previously reported.

In the second half of 2024, elevated ocean freight rates helped improve our margins, but fluctuations in USD exchange rates and the loss of key agents in the Nordics and Europe due to competitor acquisitions offset some of the gains. We quickly replaced these agents and expanded our network by adding Vietnam and merging the Shenzhen and Hong Kong operations to adapt to the economic situation in the Pearl River Delta.

Despite challenges, our freight logistics business exceeded expectations, delivering a full-year profit above both the 2024 budget and the financial year 2023 results. Looking ahead to the financial year 2025, we anticipate continued geopolitical volatility affecting global supply chains, including tariff policies on China and Mexico. The temporary pause in the Middle East conflict and the reopening of the Suez Canal may lower freight rates in the first quarter and the second quarter, impacting our 2025 budget. To drive growth, we are expanding in Europe, with plans to add four new country offices in Central Europe by mid-2025.

Commodity Logistics

Our commodity logistics business delivered strong performance in the financial year 2024, surpassing expectations despite a challenging global environment. We leveraged our operational strengths and strategic position in commodity logistics to maintain robust demand, driven by global supply chain disruptions and complexities in key markets like cocoa and coffee. These industries faced significant challenges, including climate change, geopolitical tensions, and price volatility, alongside growing demand for ethically sourced and premium products. We navigated these dynamics by utilising our expertise and investing in technology-driven solutions.

In the financial year 2024, we expanded with a Bonded Logistics Centre in Serang, Indonesia, enhancing regional storage and distribution capabilities. This supported the increasing demand for secure, efficient commodity handling. Additionally, our logistics and blending services for minerals, particularly copper and gold concentrates, emerged as a significant growth driver in the financial year 2024. Our strategic positioning in copper concentrate logistics aligns with the industry's positive outlook, driven by rising demand for copper due to its crucial role in renewable energy technologies and electric vehicles. Our ability to provide specialised services in this sector has strengthened our market position and contributed to the growth. Similarly, our handling of gold concentrates benefits from increased demand in Asia, further solidifying our foothold in the mineral logistics sector.

Our ability to ensure timely delivery and traceability solidified our reputation as a trusted partner in navigating an uncertain market. Looking ahead to the financial year 2025, we plan to expand our portfolio, enhance efficiency, and leverage innovation to drive service excellence.

As compared with last year, the Group's logistics segment achieved a 17% growth in revenue from HK$4,619,054,000 to HK$5,411,113,000 and a 31% increase in profit before tax ("PBT") from HK$218,436,000 to HK$286,333,000, driven by improved performance across its logistics services, particularly the freight logistics. The freight logistics performed well by leveraging opportunities created by the geo-political tensions and supply chain disruptions. The Group remains focus on expanding its global network and service offerings while staying proactive in managing market challenges to mitigate risks and capture new business opportunities.

Commodity Marketing

Commodity marketing ("CM") continues to leverage its expertise in global supply chain management for non-ferrous concentrates and refined metals, while expanding into energy products and other metals in 2024. The company has also strengthened partnerships with small-scale miners to enhance its supply base and promote sustainable practices. Additionally, CM has focused on expanding its presence in new regions, with an emphasis on improving logistics and operations across Africa, a key area of its strategy.

While the traded volume of concentrates, refined metals, and energy products remained stable, as compared with last year, CM saw a 3% increase in revenue from HK$31,175,669,000 to HK$32,108,541,000 and a 443% significant rise in PBT from HK$17,206,000 to HK$93,468,000. Our improved efficiencies reduced operational costs and boosted margins. We further developed our blending facilities to capitalise on the tighter concentrates market, offering customised solutions for smelters.

Throughout the year, CM refined its London Metal Exchange (LME) management practices to better mitigate risk in a volatile commodities market. These efforts, combined with strong demand, improved the profitability of concentrates trading, while refined metals and energy products contributed robustly to overall performance.

Looking ahead, CM is focused on scaling its African operations, particularly logistics, and leveraging geographic expansion to diversify its supply sources. The company also plans to explore new minerals and enhance its presence in energy trading and other metal products. With a commitment to long-term stability, operational efficiency, and strategic growth, CM is well-positioned to navigate market challenges and seize emerging opportunities in 2025 and beyond.

Financial Services

Our financial services arm continues to grow its total customer equity funds year-on-year, with an increase of 13% for the financial year 2024, despite the high-interest rate environment. Market volatility remains high, which typically leads to higher trading volumes during this period.

We have been a clearing member of the world's largest derivatives exchange, the Chicago Mercantile Exchange (CME), for the last decade. Having established relatively stable and significant clearing volumes on other global exchanges, we are now in the final stages of becoming a clearing member of the Intercontinental Exchange (ICE), a key trading venue for global energy markets. As direct Clearing Members, this will enhance the services we provide to our customers.

While financial institutions and corporate accounts remain our core customer base, we have invested in expanding our reach into the retail market. This includes refreshing our brand touchpoints, enhancing our digital marketing content and reach, launching new products for retail investors, and hiring sales specialists. Our retail initiatives in Southeast Asia have gained momentum, forming a new business segment for us with exponential growth potential.

In addition to our retail initiatives, we continue to invest in accelerating our digital transformation. The goal is to automate processes, increase productivity, and, importantly, digitise touchpoints to improve our customers' on-boarding and trading experience.

Financial services maintained a similar level of revenue of HK$625,820,000 (2023: HK$626,035,000) and recorded a 3% increase PBT from HK$192,834,000 to HK$198,825,000 mainly due to increment in interest income resulting from higher average interest rate and increase in customer equity fund, but was offset by weaker performance from both USA and Asia markets.

Engineering Services

For the financial year 2024, the engineering services (“ES”) business recorded a 9% drop year-on-year in revenue from HK$715,970,000 to HK$648,520,000, but achieved a 14% growth year-on-year in PBT from HK$33,439,000 to HK$38,286,000. This growth was achieved despite intense competition in the industry as ES continued to enhance its operations by digitalising work processes and introducing innovative solutions to lower operating costs and improve its competitiveness in securing contracts.

Engineering Maintenance

The facility management and maintenance market remains highly competitive. However, we expect to retain our existing contracts in the coming year. We successfully retained our key contracts for the vehicles and equipment division in 2024. Although new entrants have emerged in both the facility and vehicle maintenance markets, we are confident in our ability to retain our existing contracts in 2025, given our strong performance.

The labour market remains tight, continuing to pose a challenge to new businesses. Despite this, our business performed well in 2024 and is expected to remain steady in 2025.

LIQUIDITY, FINANCIAL RESOURCES AND FINANCING ACTIVITIES

As at 31 December 2024, the Group had cash and cash equivalents of HK$2,271,537,000 (31 December 2023: HK$1,998,840,000). At the end of the reporting period, total borrowings accounted for around 17.2% were at fixed interest rates. There are no known seasonal factors in the Group's borrowing profile.

The Group manages its capital to ensure that entities in the Group will be able to continue as a going concern while maximising the return to stakeholders through the optimisation of the debt and equity balance. The Group will balance its overall capital structure through new share issues as well as raising of new borrowings or redemption of existing debt using cash flow generated from operating activities and disposal of assets. The Group's gearing ratio (net debt to total capital) as at 31 December 2024 was 18.6% (31 December 2023: 27.1%).

As at 31 December 2024, outstanding derivatives on the books were mainly commodity contracts for hedging the commodity price exposure. The management monitors the hedging policy closely and the hedging level of the Group is approximately 100% of the total commodity inventories.

The Group maintains an appropriate level of foreign currency borrowings, as determined by management, for natural hedge to minimise the foreign exchange exposure. As at 31 December 2024, of the total HK$5,924,561,000 (31 December 2023: HK$5,646,278,000), the Group had HK$5,258,561,000 (31 December 2023: HK$4,930,278,000) in loans and borrowings are denominated in currencies other than Hong Kong dollar, which are mainly denominated in Singapore dollar, United States dollar and Euro.

BUSINESS PROSPECTS

For 2024, the world economy has shown remarkable resilience. The International Monetary Fund projected the global economic growth at 3.3% in 2025 and 2026. This stability has been underpinned by continued disinflation, softening commodity prices, and monetary easing in many countries. Global headline inflation is expected to decline to 4.2% in 2025 and to 3.5% in 2026. However, ongoing conflicts, geopolitical tensions and climate risks, as well as potential trade restrictions pose significant challenges going forward. In particular, an intensification of protectionist policies, in the form of a new wave of tariffs, could exacerbate trade tensions, lower investment, reduce market efficiency, distort trade flows and again disrupt supply chains. While the global trend of monetary easing is expected to gradually reduce financing costs in many economies, the pace of interest rate-cuts remains uncertain. Under such circumstances, we consider it still necessary to continue focusing on core industries, enhancing core competence, promoting further synergy and collaboration among business sectors, and seeking for business opportunities in the PRC and other global regions for risk diversification reasons.

Hainan Free Trade Port (“HFTP”) has been one of the ports with the highest level of openness in the world nowadays, and an increasing number of global enterprises have set up regional headquarters or branch offices in Hainan Province. The Group continues to explore business opportunities in HFTP and Southeast Asia countries through multiple routes, such as establishing strategic cooperation and joint venture with local business partners. Since the initiation of the strategic cooperation with Yangpu Investment (a subsidiary of Hainan Yangpu Development and Construction Holding Co., Ltd) in April 2024, the Group has facilitated a number of study tours and exchange activities among the Group, business and industrial experts from Singapore, and local organisations in Hainan, in order to evaluate potential investment and business development opportunities in HFTP. Meanwhile, on the occasion of the 50th anniversary of diplomatic relations between China and Malaysia, in May 2024, the Group signed a memorandum of understanding with global commodity logistics company Access World Group (headquartered in Malaysia), in order to extend further collaboration in the area of commodity marketing and logistics. According to the master plan for HFTP, a Free Trade Port (FTP) system focused on trade and investment liberalisation and facilitation will be “basically established” in Hainan by the end of 2025. In order to seize the development opportunities in HFTP, our freight logistics business has incorporated a subsidiary in HFTP in November 2024 aiming to provide logistics solutions for local companies. Meanwhile, upon working closely with our global strategic partners, we continue to focus on the growth opportunities in the global regions, including Southeast Asia, Europe, and Central America. As our footprint in Greater China and other global regions continues to deepen, our relentless focus is to learn from our experience and copy the success in Singapore and other global regions, to contribute to the economic growth and sustainable development in the regions that we operate, and to create more value for the shareholders.

For 2025, facing the opportunities and challenges in the global market place, in addition to operating the business with caution, the Group will promote deeper internal synergy, continue to expand our global commercial network, and seize further growth opportunities in Greater China and other global regions to maximise the shareholders' interests and earn a brighter future.

SCOPE OF WORK OF BAKER TILLY HONG KONG LIMITED

The financial figures in respect of the Group's consolidated statement of financial position, consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income and the related notes thereto for the year ended 31 December 2024 as set out in this announcement have been compared by the Group's auditor, Baker Tilly Hong Kong Limited, Certified Public Accountants, to the amounts set out in the Group's audited consolidated financial statements for the year and the amounts were found to be in agreement. The work performed by Baker Tilly Hong Kong Limited in this respect did not constitute an audit, review or other assurance engagement in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing, Hong Kong Standards on Review Engagements or Hong Kong Standards on Assurance Engagements issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants and consequently no assurance has been expressed by the auditor.

PURCHASE, SALE OR REDEMPTION OF THE COMPANY'S LISTED SECURITIES

Neither the Company nor any of its subsidiaries had purchased, sold or redeemed any of the Company's listed securities (whether on the Stock Exchange or otherwise) during the year ended 31 December 2024.

COMPLIANCE WITH CORPORATE GOVERNANCE CODE

The Company had complied with the code provisions of the Corporate Governance Code (the "CG Code") as set out in Part 2 of Appendix C1 to the Listing Rules for the financial year ended 31 December 2024, except the following deviation:

Pursuant to code provision C.2.1 of the CG Code, the roles of chairman and chief executive should be separate and should not be performed by the same individual. Mr. Wang Kan had been appointed as the chairman of the Board (the "Chairman") and the chief executive officer of the Company (the "Chief Executive Officer") during the period from 21 February 2022 to 28 June 2024.

The Board believed that vesting the roles of both Chairman and Chief Executive Officer in the same person had the benefit of ensuring consistent leadership within the Group and enabled more effective and efficient overall strategic planning for the Group. The Board considered this structure to enable the Company to make and implement decisions promptly and effectively. The Board believed that the balance of power and authority was adequately ensured by the operation of the Board, which comprises experienced and high calibre individuals with a sufficient number of independent non-executive Directors.

Therefore, the Directors consider that the reasons for deviation from code provision C.2.1 of the CG Code were appropriate in such circumstances.

Note: Mr. Wang Kan ceased to be the Chief Executive Officer and Mr. Shang Duoxu was appointed as the Chief Executive Officer, with effect from 28 June 2024.

APPRECIATION

The Board would like to take this opportunity to extend its sincere gratitude to all shareholders of the Company, investors, customers, suppliers and business partners of the Company for their valuable and continuous support and trust to the Group. The Board would also extend its gratitude and appreciation to all our management and staff for their tireless efforts, diligence and dedication throughout the year.
